a brilliant treasury of wisdom and insight drawn from leading sociologists throughout the world it is a striking achievement of which the international sociological association can be very proud to have brought so many independent minded scholars into so productive a dialogue dennis smith professor of sociology loughborough university twenty nine chapters from prominent international contributors discuss challenge and re conceptualise the global discipline of sociology evaluating the diversities within and between sociological traditions of many regions and nation states they assess all aspects of the discipline ideas and theories scholars and scholarship practices and traditions and ruptures and continuities through an international perspective the handbook argues that diversities in sociological traditions can be studied at three levels first they need to be studied from multiple spatial locations within localities within nation states within regions and the globe second they need to be discussed in terms of their sociological moorings in distinct philosophies epistemologies and theoretical frames cultures of science and languages of reflection third the intellectual moorings of sociological practices are extensive the papers discuss the diverse and comparative sites of knowledge production and its transmission

this is the first handbook focussing on classical social theory it offers extensive discussions of debates arguments and discussions in classical theory and how they have informed contemporary sociological theory the book pushes against the conventional classical theory pedagogy which often focused on single theorists and their contributions and looks at isolating themes capturing the essence of the interest of classical theorists that seem to have relevance to modern research questions and theoretical traditions this book presents new approaches to thinking about theory in relationship to sociological methods sociology is experiencing what can only be described as hyperdifferentiation of theories there are now many approaches competing for attention in the intellectual arena from this perspective we should see a weeding out of theories to a small number but this is not likely to occur because each of the many theoretical perspectives has a resource base of adherents as a result theories in sociology do not compete head on with each other as much as they coexist this seminal reference work was brought together with an eye to capturing the diversity of theoretical activity in sociology specifically the forefront of theory contributors describe what they themselves are doing right now rather than what others have done in the past the goal of this volume is to allow prominent theorists working in a variety of traditions who wouldn't usually come together to review their work the chapters in this volume represent a mix of theoretical orientations and strategies but these theories are diverse and represent the prominent theoretical discussions in sociology today some areas included are section i theoretical methodologies and strategies section ii the cultural turn in sociological theorizing section iii theorizing interaction processes section iv theorizing from the systemic and macrolevel section v new directions in evolutionary theorizing section vi theorizing on power conflict and change section vii theorizing from assumptions of rationality this handbook will be of interest to those wanting a broad spectrum and overview of late 20th early 21st century sociological theory
