during the 2010s science fiction's immortal adversaries king kong and godzilla representing our conflicts per carl sagan's dream dragons analogy made comebacks in american cinema the blockbuster kaiju resurged onto the screen depicting these protectors of an earth plagued by mankind's hubris and folly with earth's future hanging in the balance their climactic 2021 staging settled a score between the two giant monsters resolving toho's classic 1963 film king kong vs godzilla as formidable creatures emerging from time's tomb on mother earth metaphorical kong and godzilla are considered here in light of new millennial environmentalism's stark reality this book nostalgic in tone explores the meaning of kong and godzilla as planetary saviors titanic protectors of a theoretical living earth gaia defending the globe from a prehistoric plague of adversaries

once dismissed as a fading genre with little to say to contemporary audiences the giant monster movie roared back to life in the new millennium in one of modern cinema's most surprising turnarounds a wave of 21st century kaiju films has delivered exciting and thought provoking viewing to global audiences in a variety of works that range from action packed cgi spectacles to more personal introspective productions commenting on real world issues of the day the new millennium has witnessed some of the most intriguing films in any genre including movies from such acclaimed directors such as guillermo del toro bong joon ho and peter jackson this book takes a sober multidimensional look at the new class of giant monster movies it examines the making of these films and their sometimes obscure meanings it also covers efforts to reinvent storied kaiju characters from the past including godzilla and king kong and to transform the genre with movies such as cloverfield the mist colossal and pacific rim that feature all new creatures
