truth courage patriotism emotions and the nation come together in this simmering narrative nathuram godse assassinated mahatma gandhi as he walked towards the prayer grounds at the birla house in new delhi godse had attempted the attack twice earlier but failed after the third attempt which led to gandhi s death he was arrested at the crime scene and sentenced to death after a year long trial thus began a crucial debate over the assassination with people mourning gandhi s death on the one hand and standing with godse on the other the long trial unraveled the pain of the partition and the poverty of the people who were struggling to start life afresh laying bare the thoughts of the common people and those in power alike why i killed gandhi is godse s confession on why he took the drastic step and the events leading up to it the men who killed gandhi by manohar malgonkar takes readers back into the pages of indian history during the time of the partition featuring the murder plot and assassination of mahatma gandhi the men who killed gandhi is a spellbinding non fictional recreation of the events which led to india s partition the eventual assassination of gandhi and the prosecution of those who were involved in gandhi s murder this historical reenactment is set against the tumultuous backdrop of the british raj malgonkar s book is a result of painstaking research and from also having privileged access to many important documents and photographs related to the assassination there is no doubt that mahatma gandhi played a leading role in obtaining independence from the british but the problems that ensued afterwards such as the structural rebuilding of the country and the partition led to many riots massive migrations and deep racial and cultural divides not everyone agreed with gandhi and his ideals as a result a plot to assassinate gandhi was devised by six individuals named narayan apte gopal godse madanlal pahwa digambar badge and nathuram godse this was eventually carried out in new delhi on the 30th of january 1948 eventually these six individuals were tried and convicted four of them received life sentences while two of them received the death penalty the first publication of the men who killed gandhi occurred in 1978 during the emergency years as a result malgonkar omitted many vital facts including dr ambedkar s role in minimizing savarkar s criminal conviction this 11th edition of the text contains these omitted facts as well as rare documents and photographs obtained from national archives after the four individuals who were convicted for gandhi s murder completed their life sentences they were interviewed by malgonkar these individuals revealed many details to him which were never known before the author also received access to the kapur commission from his friend mr nayar who was in the indian police service as a result the men who killed gandhi is considered the most historically accurate account of gandhi s assassination plot godse approached gandhi on january 30 1948 during the evening prayer at 5 15pm when godse bowed one of the girls flanking and supporting gandhi said to godse brother bapu is already late and tried to put him off but he pushed her aside and shot gandhi in the chest three times at point blank range with a semi automatic pistol gandhi was taken to birla house where he later died this is the autobiography of gandhi s killer excerpt from wikipedia in the history of india we rarely come across the story of a person who died an untimely death who s brother suffered a life of immense mental torture and a person whose family faced countless abuses and humiliations what for yes for no other cause than the love for his motherland this person is nathuram vinayakrao godse india s most hated criminal a person who could not bear to see the partition of his country taking place before his own eyes a person who could not see his fellow countrymen being butchered like slaughter cows but does this gross act of injustice to the people of india and the callous disregard for the sentiments of millions of indians justify nathuram godse s action what inspired nathuram godse to decide on january 12 that he must turn into a killer what was narayan apte s vishnu karkare s madanlal pahwa s and gopal godse s role in the conspiracy was there an involvement of an outsider in the assassination of gandhi on whose instructions was savarkar arrested and implicated in this crime could this murder have been prevented by the police was a very influential organization involved in this crime how did digambar badge turn approver there are many questions that raise eyebrows our children are taught in school that gandhi was killed and not why nathuram godse killed him hey ram these are the last eternal words from the dying mahatma gandhiji at 17 17 hrs on friday the 30th january 1948 in the birla house delhi akhand bharat amar rahe these are the dying cries from nathuram vinayak godse and narayan d apte from the gallows of ambala gaol on at 8 00 hrs on tuesday the 15th november 1949 in mahatma gandhi assassination case 9 persons were arrested and put on trial at the red fort trial new delhi later the appellate case was tried by the full bench of high court of judicature for the province of east punjab at simpla under criminal appeal no 66 of 1949 nathuram vinayak godse and narayan d apte were hanged v r karkare madhanlal pawa and gopal vinjayak godse underwent life imprisonment for a term of 14 years dr parchure and shankar kistayya were acquitted in appeal v d savarkar was honourably acquitted by the trial court itself and digambar ramachandra badge was tendered general pardon for being an honest approver remaining three accused ie gangadhar dandwadi gangadhar jadhav and suryadevo sharma all from gwalior remained as absconders till date this is the book of judgment delivered by the punjab high court on 21st june 1949 this is an authentic source of information on the sad event of murder of mahatma gandhiji for those who want to go back into the saddest part of our past description three bullets were shot into the chest of mahatma gandhi by a certain nathuram godse on the evening of 30 january 1948 his true motivations however are today actively obscured and his admirers sit in the indian parliament as members of the ruling establishment this book is a timely effort to remind us that gandhi s killing was not a random act of a mindless killer it was the culmination of a cold blooded conspiracy the men who stood trial for the murder of gandhi claimed that they were acting for a stronger more united india their 78 year old peace loving target they felt was the single biggest impediment to achieving that goal they accused him of dishonesty and treachery he was blamed for the partition of india for appeasing muslims and condemned for fail ing in his duty to the people of this nation to them gandhi had to die because there was no legal machinery by which such an offender could be brought to book do any of the accusations have any claim to truth whatsoever if not what then was the actual intention that these arguments made by godse were attempting to hide and was v d savarkar among others involved in the conspiracy ashok kumar pandey s why they killed gandhi translated from the celebrated hindi original lays bare the facts of the murder and offers a passionate defence of the mahatma and his politics while simultaneously delivering a trenchant polemic against the ideology of bigotry and perpetual violence that killed him this book is completely based on india politics i have told almost all the things related to our politicians parties governments like criminal records education security corruption their illegal activities and many more every thing is written with references which also makes it interesting because i have not favored a single party or government in this book being a responsible citizen of country it is our duty to select a best government who can make us feel proud when we think of our cultural development education technology living standard and many more in forming government our votes are prominent factor so i tried to tell how should we give a vote what are the main characteristics a politician must have all these things are discussed in a sarcastic way mean to say everything is shown with references of current situation of political system i have tried to make everything done by our politicians very clear so that you can make a real comparison between reality and expectations which will help us to take corrective actions against the governments history of indian nation india the cradle for one of the most ancient civilizations in the world has a long and rich history spanning thousands of years in fact the history of india begins with evidence of human activity millions of years ago the indus valley civilization was the first major civilization vedic civilization witnessed the rise of major polities almost the whole country was controlled by mauryan empire and it was again united under gupta empire muslim rule in the subcontinent began when the arabs conquered sindh and multan then several invasions from central asia led to the formation of muslim empires such as the delhi sultanate and the mughal empire mughals conquered most of northern india and finally controlled the entire sub continent and afghanistan mughal empire declined in the 18th century then east india company gained ascendancy over south asia dissatisfaction with company rule led to an unsuccessful revolt in 1857 after which india was directly administered by the british crown in the 20th century a nationwide struggle for independence was launched by indian national congress the subcontinent gained independence from great britain in 1947 but the country was partitioned into two dominions of india and pakistan after independence a new era began this comprehensive book comprising four volumes covers the entire history of the indian nation in a very compact manner this book is an asset for historians teachers students and general readers at par post independence india india gained independence from great britain in 1947 but the british provinces under the crown were partitioned into two dominions of india and pakistan and all princely states acceded to either of the two dominions after independence a new era began pt nehru took the reins of the newly independent nation nehru era made a new history later came on the scene indira gandhi her eventful period was followed by janata party rule and thus the story went on there are a lot of books on indian history already published and stacks in libraries are packed with them but it is always felt that a seriously composed compact and not so lengthy book on the subject could always create a niche for itself hence this endeavor contents introduction india before independence dawn of freedom significant developments after independence prime ministers indo pakistan conflicts and wars system of governance in india national symbols of india as the frequent description of nathuram godse as a hindu extremist people who are less careful with logic assume that his analysis of gandhi s politics must also be an extremist view shared only by other extremists and perhaps a few more harmless eccentrics on many points

however godse merely articulated the majority view among freedom fighters among hindus at large and even among mankind in general his insistence on the need for military capability to deter or repel aggressors is shared by political leaders in every country his criticism of gandhi s autocratic and whimsical leadership was voiced by many inside the congress movement his skepticism of the mahatma s mixing of spirituality and politics was shared by many hindus rooted in their tradition including active practitioners of either politics or the spiritual path his scathing verdict of gandhiji as the father of pakistan was certainly a minority view but one shared till today by numerous hindus and sikhs who had trusted the mahatma s assurances partition over my dead body yet found themselves forced to flee from their homes in what had become pakistan yet none of the millions of people who agreed with godse on some or on all points of his critique deduced from their sobre and demythologized analysis that murder was the solution there is no necessary relation between criticism and murder it is an old rhetorical trick of despots to associate criticism of their regime with disorder and crime given the despotic nature of the secularism imposed on india by a self alienated elite group no one will be surprised to notice that criticism of gandhi s policy of muslim appeasement is routinely criminalized by vocal secularists typically with reference to godse s crime what remains of nathuram godse is the statement he gave in his own defence during the trial on 8 november 1948 after the statement was read in court its publication was prohibited however after the release of godse s accomplices from prison in the 1960s translations in indian languages started appearing and in 1977 nathuram s brother gopal published the english original under the cautious title may it please your honour a new edition with a long epilogue by gopal on the background and the events in prison was published in 1993 under the more revealing title why i assassinated mahatma gandhi the hindu mahasabha has merely published the speech itself and some eye witnesses have laid down in writing their memories of the atmosphere in court when godse spoke justice gopal das khosla one of godse s judges and whose sympathies were certainly not with hindu communalism has left us this impression the audience was visibly and audibly moved there was a deep silence when he ceased speaking many women were in tears and men were coughing and searching for their handkerchiefs i have however no doubt that had the audience on that day been constituted into a jury and entrusted with the task of deciding godse s appeal they would have brought in a verdict of not guilty by an overwhelming majority statistics is defined as the science and practice of developing knowledge through the use of empirical data expressed in quantitative form that is in numbers in live stress free with statistics and numbers dr vasant cchapnerkar illustrates how statistics and numbers play a vital role in our everyday lives he explains how you can use statistics can help to alleviate the stress in your life because they provide practical objective ways of viewing your problems one of the first examples he uses is the way in which he asked his children to have their children if they allowed for at least two to four years between each child they and the grandparents would have the chance to spend time with them at the ages when they would get the most from it he built on the statistic that most children begin playing with their friends around age four a theory that enabled him and his wife to fully enjoy their grandchildren since he has traveled to over eighty seven countries using his educational background he has realized that people make statements based upon minimal information and hence are stressed out when they are pressed to quantify their statements live stress free with statistics and numbers was written to provide them with a greater comfort level with statistics and numbers a vital part of everything we do there is very little in life that has no number associated with it the murderer the monarch and the fakir is a fresh account of one of the most controversial political assassinations in contemporary history that of mahatma gandhi based on previously unseen intelligence reports and police records this book recreates the circumstances of his murder the events leading up to it and the investigation afterwards in doing so it unearths a conspiracy that runs far deeper than a hate crime and challenges the popular narrative about the assassination that has persisted for the past seventy years the murderer the monarch and the fakir examines the potential role of princely states hypermasculinity and a militant right wing in the context of a nation that had just won her independence it relies on investigative journalism and new evidence set in a strong academic framework to unpack the significance of this tumultuous event the assassination of mahatma gandhi on 30 january 1948 was a declaration of war and a statement of intent for the forces who conspired in the killing the act was a declaration of war against the secular democratic indian state and all those who stood to affirm these principles as well as an announcement of a lasting commitment to india as a hindu rashtra it was also an act to signal the elimination of all that india s national movement against imperialism stood for beyond doubt is a dossier of historical and critical documents that aims to contextualize the politics motivations and circumstances behind the assassination of mahatma gandhi attempts to legitimize the act of killing and to celebrate the killers have re doubled since may 2014 following the coming to power of the new regime in new delhi the time is right therefore to set the record straight the visceral hatred directed against gandhi and the denigration of everything he stood for need to be recounted if we are to understand the political nature of that dastardly act this book attempts to weave together archival documents from government of india records relating to developments after the assassination with translation of works in marathi gujarati and hindi de constructing the ideology responsible for the political killing while several of the documents have appeared before in issues of communalism combat this compilation presents new material on the subject the first english translation of jagan phadnis s book mahatmyache akher forms part of the dossier as do y d phadke s analysis of attempts to legitimize gandhi s killing and chunibhai vaidya s analysis of pradeep dalvi s play on godse it also covers the recent controversy over the destruction of files relating to gandhi s assassination by government of india godse approached gandhi on january 30 1948 at the time of the evening prayer at 5 15 pm when godse bowed one of the girls flanking and advocating for gandhi said to godse brother bapu is already late and endeavoured to put him off but he drove her aside and shot gandhi in the chest three times at point blank range with a semi automatic pistol gandhi was taken to birla house where he later parted this is the autobiography of gandhi s killer the untold account of the other side of gandhiji is apprehended in this book the crisp and clear narrative of what exactly transpired naturam godse to take this step this book incorporates the original statement given by nathuram godse the final address of nathuram godse this book deals with the assassin nathuram godse and his motive for killing gandhi by comparing godse s case against gandhi with criticism and historical data it is common knowledge that mahatma gandhi was shot dead in 1948 by a hindu militant shortly after india had both gained her independence and lost nearly a quarter of her territory to the new state of pakistan lesser known is assassin nathuram godse s motive until now no publication has dealt with this question except for the naked text of godse s own defence speech during his trial it didn t save him from the hangman but still contains substantive arguments against the facile glorification of the mahatma dr koenraad elst compares godse s case against gandhi with criticisms voiced in wider circles and with historical data known at the time or brought to light since while the mahatma was extolled by the hindu masses political leaders of divergent persuasions who had had dealings with him were less enthusiastic their sobering views would have become the received wisdom about the mahatma if he hadn t been martyred yet the author also presents some new considerations in gandhi s defence from unexpected quarters bharatvarsh consisted of today s india afghanistan pakistan nepal tibet bhutan bangladesh burma and srilanka britishers partitioned this nation from time to time with the last jolt in 1947 by creating west and east pakistan based on 2 nation theory accepted by the congress leaders gandhi and nehru against the wishes of hindu majority the partition was made on the basis that muslims wanted their own separate country hence all muslims should have gone to pakistan and all hindus should have come to bharat however nehru liyaquat pact permitted 3 crore muslims to stay in bharat while pakistan declared itself an islamic country and persecuted the hindus staying in pakistan and reducing their strength from 22 inn 1947 to 2 in 2021 bharat did not declare itself hindu rashtra resulting into burgeoning of muslim population in bharat from 3 crore to 35 crore there were several countries in the world which were in the same or even worst position in 1947 including britain itself france germany japan israel china korea spain etc all these countries except bharat have become developed countries now unlike bharat which is limping for development did we really get independence why are we facing insurgencies communal riots engineered unrest protests and strikes rampant corruption divisive forces why nonplan expenses are more than plan expenditures the foundation of the independence of our country has been made on wrong premises and gospels it is utmost necessary to go to the root causes of the prevailing circumstances
