anyone who enjoys novels that are scary erotic touching tragic and thrilling should rush right out to the nearest bookstore and pick up the shadow of the wind really you should michael dirada the washington post wondrous masterful the shadow of the wind is ultimately a love letter to literature intended for readers as passionate about storytelling as its young hero entertainment weekly editor s choice this is one gorgeous read stephen king i still remember the day my father took me to the cemetery of forgotten books for the first time barcelona 1945 a city slowly heals in the aftermath of the spanish civil war and daniel an antiquarian book dealer s son who mourns the loss of his mother finds solace in a mysterious book entitled the shadow of the wind by one julián carax but when he sets out to find the author s other works he makes a shocking discovery someone has been systematically destroying every copy of every book carax has written in fact daniel may have the last of carax s books in existence soon daniel s seemingly innocent quest opens a door into one of barcelona s darkest secrets an epic story of murder madness and doomed love hidden in the heart of the old city of barcelona is the cemetery of lost books a labyrinthine library of obscure and forgotten titles that have long gone out of print to this library a man brings his 10 year old son daniel one cold morning in 1945 daniel is allowed to choose one book from the shelves and pulls out la sombra del viento by julian carax but as he grows up several people seem inordinately interested in his find then one night as he is wandering the old streets once more daniel is approached by a figure who reminds him of a character from la sombra del viento a character who turns out to be the devil this man is tracking down every last copy of carax's work in order to burn them what begins as a case of literary curiosity turns into a race to find out the truth behind the life and death of julian carax and to save those he left behind a page turning exploration of obsession in literature and love and the places that obsession can lead this book provides a comprehensive state of the art account of the field reaffirming iberian studies as a dynamic and evolving discipline offering promising areas of future research it is an essential tool for research in iberian studies els ecos de guerra sembla que s'esmoreeixen però i si fos només la calma abans de la tempesta els oracles tornen a parlar i anuncien l'arribada imminent d'alguna cosa que pot canviar per sempre el destí de dos mons una cosa que aquest cop potser ni tan sols els herois de la profecia no estan preparats per afrontar this is the first collection of articles devoted entirely to less translated languages a term that brings together well known widely used languages such as arabic or chinese and long neglected minority languages with power as the key word at play it starts with some views on english the dominant language in translation as elsewhere considers the role of translation for minority languages both a source of inequality and a means to overcome it takes a look at translation from less translated major languages and cultures and ends up with a closer look at translation into catalan a paradigmatic case of less translated language in a final section that includes a vindication of six prominent catalan translators combining sound theoretical insight and accurate analysis of relevant case studies the contributors to this collection make a convincing case for a more thorough examination of less translated languages within the field of translation studies da den ti årige daniel af sin far bliver bragt til de glemte bøgernes kirkegård i barcelona sætter det en lang række begivenheder i gang som rækker langt ud over de fattige år efter borgerkrigen og som får daniel ud på mange spændende opgaver som opsporer af bortkomne bøger un amanecer de 1945 un muchacho es conducido por su padre a un misterioso lugar oculto en el corazón de la ciudad vieja el cementerio de los libros olvidados allí daniel siempre encuentra un libro maldito que cambia el rumbo de su vida y le arrastra a un laberinto de intrigas y secretos enterrados en el alma oscura de la ciudad the poems speak frankly about death but they also exhibit a remarkable subtle understanding of life that comes only from those who are threatened so tangibly with its loss thirty poets from around the world read to you in person this is a new concept in publishing your own personal poetry festival brought into your home each poet reads to you for about ten minutes up to half a dozen poems chosen from across the range of their work in person is a collaboration between bloodaxe books and award winning film maker pamela robertson pearce her style of filming combines directness and simplicity sensitivity and warmth the perfect combination for these intimate readings it is as if the poet were sitting in the room with you reading just to you and sometimes saying a few things about the poems apart from one recording taken from a live public performance all the films present informal one to one readings they enhance your appreciation of the poetry you hear how the poems sound you see how the poets read and present their work t s eliot once described poetry as one person talking to another while w h auden believed it was essential to hear poetry read aloud for no poem which when mastered is not better heard than read is good poetry in person presents the oral art of poetry in that spirit there are four hours of readings on two dvds pouched inside the back cover and all the poems are printed in this book in person celebrates 30 years of poetry from a pioneering press founded in 1978 bloodaxe has published nearly a thousand titles by three hundred writers until now you wouldn't be able to see or hear readings by many of bloodaxe's international range of poets in person makes that possible for the first time presenting readings by 30 essential voices from britain ireland america spain hungary palestine pakistan china new zealand and the caribbean four out of the 30 short films present the poets work bilingually menna elfyn's reading alternates between her welsh poems and their english translations joan margarit reads in catalan in tandem with his translator anna crowe reading her english translations palestinian poet taha muhammad ali reads in arabic and then re-inhabits each poem as it is read in english by his translator peter cole yang lian introduces his work in english and reads the poems in chinese this anthology presents all their poems in both languages in a parallel text format enabling you to follow either language as the poems are read on the film all the other readings are in english only and in many varieties of english which will add greatly to your enjoyment and appreciation of the poetry not just poems read in scottish welsh and irish english by jackie kay w n herbert gwyneth lewis brendan kennelly and Micheal O'Siadhail but also george szirtes hungarian inflected english benjamin zephaniah's melding of jamaican and birmingham and the caribbean lilt of john agard and james berry the musical range of american voices is just as diverse ranging from urban detroit philip levine to the ozark mountains c d wright there's also a bonus track a short film of bloodaxe's first poet ken smith made by ivor bowen just before ken's untimely death una matinada del 1945 un noi és acompanyat pel seu pare a un indret misteriós amagat al cor de ciutat vella el cementiri dels llibres oblidats daniel sempre hi troba un llibre maleït que canvia el rumb de la seva vida i l'arrossega a un laberint d'intrigues i secrets enterrats a l'ànima fosca de la ciutat L ombra del vent és un misteri literari ambientat a la barcelona de la primera meitat del segle xx des de les últimes esplendors del modernisme a les tenebres de la postguerra
