using a specific variety of modern textlinguistics known to some as discourse analysis capshaw greek and bible clearwater christian college florida investigates how old testament passages function at a larger discourse level where they are quoted in the new testament which requires determining the discourse type of the biblical book hosting the old testament texts as well in addition to providing insight into specific passages in matthew he also demonstrates how the approach could be used in other new testament narratives annotation investigates how the christian fundamentalist movement brings creationism into the mainstream through a kentucky museum in creating the creation museum kathleen c oberlin shows us how the largest creationist organization answers in genesis aig built a museum which has had over three million visitors to make its movement mainstream she takes us behind the scenes vividly bringing the museum to life by detailing its infamous exhibits on human fossils dinosaur remains and more drawing on over three years of research at the creation museum where she was granted rare access to aig s leadership oberlin examines how the museum convincingly reframes scientific facts such as modeling itself on traditional natural history museums through a unique historical dataset of over 1 000 internal documents from creationist organizations and an analysis of media coverage creating the creation museum shows how the museum works as a site of social movement activity and a place to contest the secular mainstream oberlin ultimately argues that the creation museum has real world consequences in today s polarized era serious bible readers including biblical scholars sunday bible teachers laypersons of church and even the sunday school kids ask the question is balaam a good or bad person or is balaam a prophet of god or a pagan diviner however nobody has provided a relieving answer for the question up to this day then what does the balaam story in the passage of num 22 24 tell us about the character of balaam more fundamentally what does the passage want readers to know this book suggests a new way for bible reading especially the old testament the old testament readers can discover a proper strategy to understand the intention and message of every single passage of the old testament through the ways that are suggested in this book comprehension of texts and understanding of questions is a cornerstone of successful human communication whilst reading comprehension has been thoroughly investigated in the last decade there is surprisingly little research on children s comprehension of picture stories particularly for bilinguals this can be partially explained by the lack of cross culturally robust cross linguistic instruments targeting early narration this book presents an inference based model of narrative comprehension and a tool that grew out of a large scale european project on multilingualism covering a range of language settings the book uses the multilingual assessment instrument for narratives to answer the question which narrative comprehension skills bilingual children can be expected to master at a certain age and explores how such comprehension is affected or not affected by linguistic and extra linguistic factors linking theory to method the book will appeal to researchers in linguistics and psychology and graduate students interested in narrative multilingualism and language acquisition
