excerpt from foundation english the expression of ideas as high school teachers we have been slow to arise to the occasion our teaching has often been too academic we have copied the college methods without examining them to see whether they were pedagogically sound as high school methods the consequence has been that we have allowed our classes to drift along with the burden of real preparation placed on the pupils of the upper classes such slipshod work as this not only has failed to prepare classes properly for college but has left out of account those pupils who are not preparing for college as well as those who leave school before the course is completed we are beginning to see how ever that english as well as other branches of study can be taught in a definite and logical manner that the proper time for beginning the work whether in preparation for college or for the world at large is in the first year that sound as college methods may be for the college they may not be sound for the high school that the whole of rhetoric should not be taught in the first year or in any year any more than the whole of algebra or the whole of latin that a book containing all the principles of rhetoric is at this early stage in the highest degree confusing and that practice under direction is essential to coherent expression about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
