in self identity and powerlessness alice koubová proposes a conception of human existence that does not essentially depend on the definition of self identity the author shows that the philosophical stress on human identity fails to grasp essential aspects of human existence by emphasizing the moments of dasein s powerlessness in heidegger s fundamental ontology she develops in her analysis of various philosophers literary examples and social psychology an original phenomenology of alternation of existence and affair how necessary is identity for thinking are we capable of philosophical thought even when we have neither ourselves nor the world under our full control is it possible to relax become powerless and yet think precisely these questions are to be answered in this book
