this book focuses on the ethical demands of extreme poverty and develops a political theory of practical change welding together political realism and moral aspirations it argues that a re imagined form of development ngo can help the global north break free from the dominant and persistent charity paradigm and drift towards a justice based understanding of extreme poverty it offers an original explanation of why the charity paradigm persists and why the justice not charity messages from development ngos have changed few minds the author argues that anyone concerned with a paradigm shift from charity to justice need to radically rethink the problem of political communication who should communicate what messages about extreme poverty in what ways based on a rational choice critique of the competitive development ngo sector the author calls for sector wide reform and the emergence of a new political agent the avant garde ngo which transcends the charity frame that ngos currently find themselves locked in further inspired by literary theory and social psychology he offers a fresh account of how the avant garde ngo could through reflective public engagement induce attitude change and lead genuine social and political reform conventional wisdom holds that same sex marriage is a purely modern innovation a concept born of an overtly modern lifestyle that was unheard of in nineteenth century america but as rachel hope cleves demonstrates in this eye opening book same sex marriage is hardly new born in 1777 charity bryant was raised in massachusetts a brilliant and strong willed woman with a clear attraction for her own sex charity found herself banished from her family home at age twenty she spent the next decade of her life traveling throughout massachusetts working as a teacher making intimate female friends and becoming the subject of gossip wherever she lived at age twenty nine still defiantly single charity visited friends in weybridge vermont there she met a pious and studious young woman named sylvia drake the two soon became so inseparable that charity decided to rent rooms in weybridge in 1809 they moved into their own home together and over the years came to be recognized essentially as a married couple revered by their community charity and sylvia operated a tailor shop employing many local women served as guiding lights within their church and participated in raising their many nieces and nephews charity and sylvia is the intimate history of their extraordinary forty four year union drawing on an array of original documents including diaries letters and poetry cleves traces their lives in sharp detail providing an illuminating glimpse into a relationship that turns conventional notions of same sex marriage on their head and reveals early america to be a place both more diverse and more accommodating than modern society might imagine charity and sylvia is a significant contribution to our limited knowledge of lgbt history in early america nonprofit law for religious organizations essential questions answers is a hands on guide to the most pertinent and critical legal issues facing those who lead and manage religious tax exempt organizations with an emphasis on tax employment property and constitutional law this timely book is a response to the need for guidance direction and clarification of legal and tax laws affecting churches and other religious organizations many bibliographers focus on women who write lawyer barnett looks at women who detect at women as sleuths and at the evolving roles of women in professions and in society excellent for all women s studies programs as well as for the mystery hound

a chance encounter diverted abdolreza ansari from completing his phd in the us and set him on a professional journey which mirrored the prolific rise and the precipitous fall of the regime of shah mohammad reza pahlavi of iran ansari s government career took off when he became iran s treasurer general at the age of 32 in this role he restructured the fiscal management of the country and revamped its social security system he was appointed minister of labor and social affairs at 34 where he created the workers welfare bank to support the labour force of the country as iran was about to enter a period of rapid development ansari was called upon to take charge of the largest development project of the time the construction of the dez dam in the oil rich province of khuzestan subsequently ansari was appointed minister of interior where he conducted national parliamentary and city council elections in a single day for the first time in iran s history his plan for the urban rehabilitation of towns and population centres continues to be the basis for municipal governance to this day ansari s political career was derailed following a cabinet reshuffle however he was hand picked by the shah to manage the many charitable organizations headed by the monarch s twin sister princess ashraf pahlavi when the iranian government began preparations for the commemoration of iran s 2500 years of continued monarchical rule he was appointed deputy head of the celebration s organizing committee prior to the 1979 revolution he initiated introduced and implemented the programmes of protection of families and the national movement for philanthropy ansari s proximity to the iranian royal court including the shah and princess ashraf and his encounters with a multitude of well known personalities make these conversations a unique and valuable historical source for the pre revolutionary period in iran the nonprofit sector in america consists of some 1 5 million tax exempt organizations ranging in size from storefront human services agencies and one room churches to giant universities and medical centers the sector accounts for about seven percent of national income employs some 10 million workers and uses the services of about 90 million volunteers this book originated at a conference sponsored by the american assembly and the indiana center on philanthropy leading scholars and practitioners consider three key clusters of issues what forces will determine the shape and activities of philanthropy and the nonprofit sector in the next decade how will philanthropy and the nonprofit sector be strengthened or weakened by those forces how can the challenges of grappling with the forces be transformed into opportunities the focus is on a variety of pressures the devolution of federal programs to the state and local levels the blurring of lines between nonprofit and for profit organizations changing distributions of income major new wealth and its concentration a revived interest in community and civil society the evolution of religion and religious institutions globalization and other regulatory reform a retreat of government from tax various policy areas and the rise of privatization and market models the public understandably assumes that since nonprofit organizations are established to do good the people who run them are altruistic and the laws governing nonprofits have reflected this assumption this text argues that the rules that govern how nonprofits operate are inadequate
