what kind of relationship exists between law and literature why have so many great jurists and philosophers used literature to explore their own disciplines what were they looking for and what did they find what can law learn from literature and how does literature reflect legal praxis this book takes us on a fascinating journey through those questions and their answers the first part offers a diachronic and thematic overview of the law and literature movement showing how literature has influenced new ways of thinking about law from a narrative hermeneutic humanistic ethical and critical perspective the second part analyzes the value of literature in the education of students lawyers and judges and the third section presents a captivating analysis of the literary notion of justice and the relationship between literature and the economic analysis of law the study concludes with a rereading of teillier s poetry itself stojkov s analyses depend upon a sense of the subject s constituting consciousness and the ability of the reader to participate in it through the approach proposed here she arrives at a method not only for reading teillier s poetry but also for evaluating its unique significance within both the national and international contexts book jacket this critical study of the group of remarkably talented poets who flourished in spain between the first world war and the spanish civil war includes copious quotations accompanied by english prose translations mr morris treats his poets as a group showing how they shared certain themes and attitudes he begins with a general study of the generation as a whole and then examines the use of tradition the zest and levity of the jazz age the exaltation of life as a shared attitude then its converse the escape from life and finally the expression in complex imagery of personal tensions and disturbances these are often difficult poets but become less so when they are sympathetically examined in this way and in relation to earlier literary traditions mr morris enables the reader to take bearings and establish relationships which are enhanced by reproductions of photographs of the poets
