correspondence documenting a jewish family s personal history of the holocaust and world war ii raya schapiro and helga weinberg found a box of letters among their mother s effects after her death in 1990 they were written by their grandmother and uncle trapped in prague after the nazi occupation to the girls parents who had escaped to the united states in may 1939 leaving behind raya and helga who were five and seven years old at the time the seventy seven letters reprinted here span a period of two years during which the nazis drew an ever tightening noose of destruction around the jews of prague each letter is followed by notes of explanation and amplification as well as notes on nazi laws and official restrictions and the progress of the war each letter has a censor s stamp on it each envelope bears the still frightening emblem of the third reich the letters dramatically convey the tension growing daily of existence under the nazis and their tone becomes increasingly desperate as every avenue of escape reaches a dead end praise for letters from prague 1939 1941 this book turns an abstraction into a palpable terror and pity chicago tribune a compelling and personal insight into the horrors of the holocaust booklist as it turned out the girls escaped only after months of bureaucratic wrangling while the grandmother and uncle never obtained permission to leave and were deported to the gas chambers at treblinka and auschwitz two years later collected here is the moving correspondence between the adults in prague and the girls parents in the u s publishers weekly in march 1939 german troops entered prague the first foreign capital to be occupied by the nazis six years later in may 1945 it was the last to be liberated as hitler s reich collapsed in defeat the nazi occupation had a profound effect and paved the way for the communist dictatorship that followed after the war the entire period was deliberately distorted for political purposes the facts were misrepresented or suppressed publications and documentary films were censored witnesses were silenced the aim of this book is to restore part of the lost history of the occupation after decades of communist manipulation it provides a rare glimpse of life in prague under the german occupation from unique photographs many of them published here for the first time it also reproduces items from ration coupons and identity cards to nazi proclamations and execution lists which were part of everyday life during the german protectorate the result is an objective account of the golden city in the years when prague and its people lived in the shadow of the swastika book jacket
