in this compelling study rena steinzor highlights the ways in which the government over the past twenty years has failed to protect children from harm caused by toxic chemicals she believes these failures under funding excessive and misguided use of cost benefit analysis distortion of science and devolution of regulatory authority have produced a situation in which harm that could be reduced or eliminated instead persists steinzor states that as a society we are neglecting our children s health to an extent that we would find unthinkable as individual parents primarily due to the erosion of the government s role in protecting public health and the environment at this pace she asserts our children will inherit a planet under grave threat we can arrest these developments if a critical mass of americans become convinced that these problems are urgent and the solutions are near at hand by focusing on three specific case studies mercury contamination through the human food chain perchlorate rocket fuel in drinking water and the effects of ozone smog on children playing outdoors steinzor creates an analysis grounded in law economics and science to prove her assertions about the existing dysfunctional system steinzor then recommends a concise and realistic series of reforms that could reverse these detrimental trends and serve as a blueprint for restoring effective governmental intervention she argues that these recommendations offer enough material to guide government officials and advocacy groups toward prompt implementation for the sake of america s and the world s future generations in this lecture series acclaimed teacher dr david r hawkins explains how we can transcend lower levels of consciousness and experience the highest levels in the map of consciousness how do we go from the 400s to the 500s theology philosophy and epistemology will lead us up to the doorway but cannot lead us through the doorway the way out of the box is through love joy peace beauty consideration devotion and the reverence for truth which is the appreciation of all that is sacred in this book dr david hawkins goes on to explore how everything is happening spontaneously and that nothing is causing anything he then talks about content and how it relates to context and how to love your humanness some of the many topics discussed include transcending duality no mind silence asking who am i vs what am i stillness letting go aligning with integrity and dissolving content into context loving your animal nature the concept of happening being illusory and much more children and youth become involved with the juvenile justice system at a significant rate while some children move just as quickly out of the system and go on to live productive lives as adults other children become enmeshed in the system developing deeper problems and or transferring into the adult criminal justice system justice for kids is a volume of work by leading academics and activists that focuses on ways to intervene at the earliest possible point to rehabilitate and redirect to keep kids out of the system rather than to punish and drive kids deeper justice for kids presents a compelling argument for rethinking and restructuring the juvenile justice system as we know it this unique collection explores the system s fault lines with respect to all children and focuses in particular on issues of race gender and sexual orientation that skew the system most importantly it provides specific program initiatives that offer alternatives to our thinking about prevention and deterrence with an ultimate focus on keeping kids out of the system altogether america s higher education system is failing its students in the space of a generation we have gone from being the best educated society in the world to one surpassed by eleven other nations in college graduation rates higher education is evolving into a caste system with separate and unequal tiers that take in students from different socio economic backgrounds and leave them more unequal than when they first enrolled until the 1970s the united states had a proud history of promoting higher education for its citizens the morrill act the g i bill and pell grants enabled americans from across the income spectrum to attend college and the nation led the world in the percentage of young adults with baccalaureate degrees yet since 1980 progress has stalled young adults from low to middle income families are not much more likely to graduate from college than four decades ago when less advantaged students do attend they are largely sequestered into inferior and often profit driven institutions from which many emerge without degrees and shouldering crushing levels of debt in degrees of inequality acclaimed political scientist suzanne mettlar explains why the system has gone so horribly wrong and why the american dream is increasingly out of reach for so many in her eye opening account she illuminates how political partisanship has overshadowed america s commitment to equal access to higher education as politicians capitulate to corporate interests owners of for profit colleges benefit but for far too many students higher education leaves them with little besides crippling student loan debt meanwhile the nation s public universities have shifted the burden of rising costs onto students in an era when a college degree is more linked than ever before to individual and societal well being these pressures conspire to make it increasingly difficult for students to stay in school long enough to graduate by abandoning their commitment to students politicians are imperiling our highest ideals as a nation degrees of inequality offers an impassioned call to reform a higher education system that has come to exacerbate rather than mitigate socioeconomic inequality in america
