the daily practice of meditation transforms us radically samael aun weor the world is in crisis and everywhere there are wars and rumors of wars promises and mockeries bombardments and political parties that fight each other it is absurd to suppose that we can depart from this social chaos with all of its fights and miseries if indeed individually we do not resolve ourselves to perform a radical and definitive change the legal or illegal changes of governments the bloody dictatorships the revolutions of blood and alcohol are all useless if we truly want an absolutely radical change then first of all we need to change ourselves individually what we are as individuals is what the world is indeed the world is the individual because the world is nothing more than the sum of all individuals the problem of the world is the problem of the individual thus if the individual does not internally change then the world will never change either even when many want to change it based on extremist doctrines bloody revolutions abominable dictatorships etc if we study our intimate problems in detail then we have to arrive at the logical conclusion that no leader can resolve these problems for us what i am is in fact the party the group the family the society the nation the individual is the beginning and the ending of every order of things thus if we want a radical transformation of this bitter and suffering world then we need each of us to individually transform ourselves in a true and very intimate way if we truly want to transform ourselves intimately for the good of the world then we need to liberate the mind and heart from any type of evilness
