traces changes of attitude toward judaism and the holocaust in the east german protestant church in the immediate postwar years the church of both germanies still united at best expressed contrition for the passivity of its individual members in the face of nazi persecutions and continued to assert the need to bring jews to christ only gradually beginning in the 1960s did the east german church come to acknowledge the guilt of the church as a body and of its theology and to view the jewish people as older brother and partner declarations of church organs did not however always translate into teaching and preaching which often clung to old anti jewish doctrines when the teaching was enlightened it was a source of knowledge for young germans about jews judaism and the holocaust subjects ignored in the state schools interest was aroused also by commemoration of the anniversary of the kristallnacht pogrom in 1978 and especially in 1988 individuals began to form groups for contact with jews to promote the erection of holocaust memorials outside churches and to tend jewish cemeteries
