the first book of adam and eve by rutherford platt adam and eve according to the creation stories of abrahamic religions were the first man and woman the story of adam and eve is central to the belief that god created human beings to live in a paradise on earth although they fell away from that state and formed the present world full of suffering and injustice it provides the basis for the belief that humanity is in essence a single family with everyone descended from a single pair of original ancestors it also provides much of the scriptural basis for the doctrines of the fall of man and original sin important beliefs in christianity although not generally shared by judaism or islam in the book of genesis of the hebrew bible chapters one through five there are two creation narratives with two distinct perspectives in the first adam and eve though not referenced by name were created together in god s image and jointly given instructions to multiply and to be stewards over everything else that god had made in the second narrative god fashions adam from dust and places him in the garden of eden where he is to have dominion over the plants and animals god places a tree in the garden which he prohibits adam from eating eve is later created from one of adam s ribs to be adam s companion however the serpent tricks eve into eating fruit from the forbidden tree god curses only the serpent and the ground he prophetically tells the woman and the man what will be the consequences of their sin of disobeying god then he banishes the man and presumably also the woman from the garden of eden
