an english translation of the oldest surviving metrical chronicle in vernacular french first published in 1889

louise michel was born illegitimate in 1830 and became a schoolmistress in paris she was involved in radical activities during the twilight of france s second empire and during the franco prussian war of 1870 and the siege of paris she was a leading member of the revolutionary groups controlling montmartre michel emerged as one of the leaders of the insurrection during the paris commune of march may 1871 and french anarchists saw her as martyr and saint the red virgin when the versailles government crushed the commune in may 1871 michel was sentenced to exile in new caledonia until the general amnesty of 1880 when she returned to france and great popular acclaim and support from the working people of the country michel was arrested again during a demonstration in paris in 1883 and sentenced to six years in prison pardoned after three years she continued her speeches and writing although she spent the greater part of her time from 1890 until her death in 1905 in england in self imposed exile it was during her prison term from 1883 to 1886 that she compiled her memoires now available in english these memoirs offer readers a view of the non marxist left and give an in depth look into the development of the revolutionary spirit the early chapters treat her childhood the development of her revolutionary feelings and her training as a schoolteacher the next section describes her activities as a schoolteacher in the haute marne and paris and therefore contains much of interest on education in 19th century europe her chapters on the siege of paris the commune and her first trial show those events from the point of view of a major participant of particular interest is a chapter on women s rights which michel saw as part of the search for the rights of all people male and female and not as a separate struggle the red virgin memoirs of louise michel will be useful to both scholars and students of 19th century french history and women s studies the gordonia region of the northern cape province has received relatively little attention from historians in hidden histories of gordonia land dispossession and resistance in the northern cape 1800 1990 martin legassick explores aspects of the generally unknown brown and black history of the region emphasising the lives of ordinary people his writing is also in part an exercise in applied history historical writing with a direct application to people s lives in the present tracing the indigenous history of gordonia as well as the northward movement of bastards and whites from the western cape through bushmanland to the orange river the book presents accounts of family histories episodes of indigenous resistance to colonisation and studies of the ultimate imposition of racial segregation and land dispossession on the inhabitants of the region a recurrent theme is the question of identity and how the extreme ethnic fluidity and social mixing apparent in earlier times crystallised in the colonial period into racial identities until with final conquest came imposed racial classification
