italian writer and filmmaker gianni celati s 1989 philosophical travelogue towards the river s mouth explores perception memory place and space as it recounts a series of journeys across the po river valley in northern italy the book seeks to document the new italian landscape where divisions between the urban and rural were being blurred into what celati terms a new variety of countryside where one breathes an air of urban solitude celati traveled by train by bus and on foot at times with photographer luigi ghirri at others exploring on his own without predetermined itineraries taking notes on the places he encountered watching and listening to people in stations fields bars houses squares and hotels in this way the book took shape as celati traveled and wrote gathering and rewriting his notes into stories of observation 9 celati attempts to find meaning by seeking the uncertain limits of our ability to discern everyday surroundings every observation as he puts it needs liberate itself from the familiar codes it carries to go adrift in the middle of all things not understood in
