this collection brings together lawyers and theologians in the u s and europe to reflect on lutheran understandings of the political use of the law by secular governments the book furthers the intellectual conversation about how lutheran insights can be used to develop jurisprudence and specific solutions to legal issues in which there is strong conflict it presents the basic theological and interpretive assumptions of the lutheran tradition as they may inform the creation of legislation and judicial interpretation at local national and international levels the authors explore luther s conception of the foundations of modern secular law and understanding of vocation the work discusses the application of lutheran theological principles to contemporary issues such as the war on terror native land rights property law family law church and state medical experimentation and the criminal law of rape providing ethical insights for lawyers and lawmakers jesus calls the church to be a sacrament to the world sadly many women lgbtq persons people of other faiths and lay persons experience suffering due to certain words and actions of the catholic church at times the language and practices of the church leave some people feeling as if their voices have been silenced their roles limited and their vocations impeded some often feel underappreciated and disrespected this work explores a vision for the future church which faces these challenges and illuminates possible solutions every person has gifts given by god for the building up of the church through a thorough exploration of biblical and church teachings alternative views of these issues provide a path to inclusion for all this book is intended to bring comfort hope and healing to those who have been marginalized it also offers a map for the church as it journeys to be more of what christ calls it to be in a manner faithful to the gospel reforms for the church are considered that open it to what the spirit might be saying when is the time for all persons to be valued welcomed empowered and respected now recent years have witnessed an astonishing cultural and legal shift when it comes to homosexuality and same sex marriage many christians see these changes as a defeat for christian values often painting christian opponents as sell outs to secular culture but can there be a genuinely christian case for same sex marriage this book makes that case while sensitive to scriptural issues it focuses on a question that cannot be answered by scripture alone what does love for our gay and lesbian neighbors demand this question calls us to pair theological philosophical and scriptural reflection with something else attention to gay and lesbian lives we must attend to the psychological research and more importantly to the stories our gay and lesbian neighbors tell us about themselves and their experience love does not permit us to plug our ears with bible verses while this book argues that christian love calls us to make same sex marriage available the deeper conclusion is that christian values prevail when we wrestle with these questions in a spirit of love love for those with whom we disagree and love for those most affected by the decisions we reach
