this is the first serious intellectual biography of guy debord prime mover of the situationist international 1957 1972 and author of the society of the spectacle perhaps the seminal book of may 1968 in france anselm jappe rejects recent attempts to set debord up as a postmodern icon arguing that he was a social theorist in the hegelian marxist tradition not a precursor of jean baudrillard but an heir of the young georg lukacs of history and class consciousness 1923 neither hagiographical nor sectarian guy debord places its subject squarely in his historical context the politicizing letterist and situationist anti artists who in the european aftermath of world war ii sought to criticize and transcend the surrealist legacy the book offers a lively critical and unusually reliable account of debord's last avant garde on its way from radical bohemianism to revolutionary theory jappe also discusses debord's films which are largely inaccessible at present this english language edition of the book has been revised by the author and features an updated critical bibliography of debord and the situationists
