the paramedic association of canada together with the american academy of orthopaedic surgeons and jones and bartlett publishers are proud to continue dr nancy caroline s legacy by introducing emergency care in the streets canadian edition dr caroline s work transformed ems and the entire paramedic field she created the first national standard curriculum for paramedic training in the united states she also wrote the first paramedic textbook emergency care in the streets in 2007 we welcomed back emergency care in the streets with the publication of the sixth edition in the united states now this program has been rewritten and revised by canadian ems experts specifically for canadian paramedics using the national occupational competency profiles this book offers a unique opportunity in both the social sciences humanities and communication fields to provide concrete concepts and notions in the areas of inter religious and inter cultural dialogue in the centennial cure the second volume in the studies in atlantic canada history series meaghan elizabeth beaton critically examines the intersection of state policy cultural development and commemoration in nova scotia during canada s centennial celebrations beaton s engaging and insightful analysis of four case studies the establishment of the cape breton miners museum the construction of halifax s centennial swimming pool the community improvement program and the 1967 nova scotia highland games and folk festival reveals the province s attempts to reimagine and renew public spaces through these case studies beaton illuminates the myriad ways in which nova scotians saw themselves in the context of modernity and ethnic identity during the post war years the successes and failures of these infrastructure and cultural projects intended to foster and develop cultural capital reflected the socio economic realities and dreams of local communities the centennial cure shifts our focus away from the dominant studies on expo 67 to provide a nuanced and tension filled account of how canada s 1967 centennial celebrations were experienced in other parts of canada in the 1960s canadians could step through time to eighteenth century trading posts or nineteenth century pioneer towns these living history museums promised authentic reconstructions of the past but as time travel shows they revealed more about mid twentieth century interests and perceptions of history than they reflected historical fact an appetite for commercial tourism led to the rise of living history museums they became important components of economic growth especially as part of government policy to promote regional economic diversity and employment alan gordon explores how these museums were shaped by post war pressures personality conflicts funding challenges and the need to balance education and entertainment ultimately the rise of the living history museum is linked to the struggle to establish a pan canadian identity in the context of multiculturalism competing anglophone and francophone nationalisms first nations resistance and the growth of the state
