The Africa Yearbook has won the ASA 2012 Conover Porter Book Award. The Africa Yearbook covers major domestic political developments, the foreign policy and socio-economic trends in sub-Saharan Africa, all related to developments in one calendar year. The yearbook contains articles on all sub-Saharan states, each of the four sub-regions: West, Central, Eastern, Southern Africa, focusing on major cross-border developments and sub-regional organizations, as well as one article on continental developments and one on African-European relations. While the articles have thorough academic quality, the yearbook is mainly oriented to the requirements of a large range of target groups: students, politicians, diplomats, administrators, journalists, teachers, practitioners in the field of development aid, as well as business people.

the rule of the road the simple requirement that traffic keep either to the left or to the right has a history long antedating the appearance of the automobile this volume the first book length treatment of the subject discusses the origins and history of the rule of the road and provides complete information on current practice throughout the world a well written account of a universal arrangement that has largely gone unnoticed by scholars this book fills a gap in scholarship on the history of transportation
