christ of latter day saints personally wrote dictated or commissioned thousands of documents among these are several highly significant sources that scholars have used over and over again in their attempts to reconstruct the founding era of mormonism usually by focusing solely on content without a deep appreciation for how and why a document was produced this book offers case studies of the sources most often used by historians of the early mormon experience each chapter takes a particular document as its primary subject considering the production of a document as an historical event in itself with its own background purpose circumstances and consequences the documents are examined not merely as sources of information but as artifacts that reflect aspects of the general culture and particular circumstances in which they were created this book will help historians working in the founding era of mormonism gain a more solid grounding in the period s documentary record by supplying important information on major primary sources from spoken words to sacred texts is an introduction intermediate level coverage of the text of the new testament andrews begins by introducing the reader to new testament textual studies by presenting all the essential foundational details necessary to understand new testament textual criticism with andrews clear and comprehensive approach to new testament textual studies from spoken words to sacred texts will remain popular for beginning and intermediate students for decades to come this source on how the new testament came down us will become the standard book for courses in biblical studies as well as the history of christianity from spoken words to sacred texts is assured of becoming a reliable clear cut resource for generations of bible students to come the greek new testament was copied and recopied by hand for 1 500 years regardless of those scribes who had worked very hard to be faithful in their copying errors crept into the text how can we be confident that what we have today is the word of god from spoken words to sacred texts introduces its readers to new testament textual studies of the greek new testament herein the reader will find plain language as edward d andrews gives the reader an in depth view of the history of the new testament we will discover how the new testament books were transmitted the intentional and unintentional scribal errors that crept into the text for some 1 500 years of corruption by copyists followed by over 400 years of restoration work by textual scholars who gave their entire lives to give us today a restored new testament text in this book the reader will gain an appreciation for the vast work that has been carried out in preserving the text of the new testament and finding renewed confidence in its reliability andrews work on from spoken words to sacred texts was carried out with an apologetical mindset to assist christians in their defense of god s word this study aims to engage the textual realities of medieval literature by shedding light on the material lives of poems during the tang from their initial oral or written instantiation through their often lengthy and twisted paths of circulation tang poems exist today in stable written forms assumed to reflect their creators original intent yet tang poetic culture was based on hand copied manuscripts and oral performance we have almost no access to this poetry as it was experienced by contemporaries this is no trivial matter the author argues if we do not understand how tang people composed experienced and transmitted this poetry we miss something fundamental about the roles of memory and copying in the circulation of poetry as well as readers dynamic participation in the creation of texts we learn something different about poems when we examine them not as literary works transcending any particular physical form but as objects with distinct physical attributes visual and sonic the attitudes of the tang audience toward the stability of texts matter as well understanding tang poetry requires acknowledging that tang literary culture accepted the conscious revision of these works by authors readers and transmitters 2012 joseph levenson book prize pre 1900 category china and inner asia council of the association for asian studies
