this book contains the solutions to problems in the main introduction to financial accounting textbook this text is intended for a first course in introductory financial accounting it was updated to reflect current international financial reporting standards ifrs for example it reflects the recent change in ias38 para 98 allowing the use of multiple methods in amortizing intangible assets it focuses on core introductory financial accounting topics that match pre requisite requirements for students advancing to intermediate financial accounting excluded are advanced topics that are covered in intermediate financial accounting such as leases and bond amortization the text takes a corporate approach vs beginning with a sole proprietorship emphasis and then converting to a corporate approach this consistency throughout the book reduces confusion for the introductory student the new global climate of free enterprise has brought with it a proliferation of offshore financial centers that presumably have important roles to play in the emergent global economy the air of secrecy that appears to pervade the activities of offshore financial centers may well slant or obscure any real understanding of the functions of such centers the authors investigate the role of major international accounting firms and their services in the processes of business facilitation in the locations that host these centers by focusing the investigation upon the role of the accounting firms in offshore financial centers the authors gain a better grasp of the real or potential impacts of the firms in the global economy and in the jurisdictions that host them not only do the authors provide a detailed assessment of what the major accounting firms are actually doing in the centers but they point out what attributes are needed by jurisdictions hoping to succeed as offshore financial centers the centers included are antigua barbuda the bahamas barbados bermuda the cayman islands the channel islands the isle of man gibraltar malta cyprus bahrain the united arab emirates mauritius the seychelles singapore and vanuatu the authors describe the legal and institutional environments facing business operations in general and the accounting firms in particular in offshore financial centers by studying these operations it should show what they are doing in terms of facilitating the international activities that flow through such centers it should also add to the understanding of the potential that offshore activities have as vehicles for development in small emerging economies this study should be of interest to a wide range of business disciplines as well as governmental agencies in advanced and emerging nations international agencies such as regional development banks and accountants and the international financial community any book on solved problems would be welcome by the students as they dread the unsolved problems the most problems and solutions in advanced accountancy vol i and ii is the result of realization of the same fact however this book will serve its purpose the best if before referring to it the students have attempted to solve the questions on their own the book has been designed specially to serve as a complementary set to the textbook advanced accountancy vol i and ii authored by the same team as dr s n maheshwari and dr s k maheshwari it contains detailed solutions to all the practical problems given at the end of each chapter in advanced accountancy as also solutions to the problems set at the recent university and professional examinations special feature of the book is that the problems have been properly graded
