this book examines mannerism and baroque in the poetry of tristan l hermite a leading lyric poet of the seventeenth century after presenting a history of scholarship on both the mannerist and baroque styles james shepard offers a definition of each as it applies to seventeenth century lyric poetry he then turns to tristan s works examining the poems contained in the plaintes d acante et autres ouvres les amours la lyre and the vers hero his religious poetry la renomme and his recently discovered poems shepard reveals tristan s amatory poetry to be mannerist and his heroic and religious poetry to be baroque many poems however contain elements of both styles this supports frank j warnke's theory that baroque is the period style with mannerism and baroque being two aspects of the period shepard also uncovers a baroque dompte style the toned down baroque that helmut hatzfeld and others argue characterized french classicism in some of tristan's heroic and religious poetry
