a philosophical anthropology drawn from simone weil s life writings situates weil s thought in the time between the two world wars through which she lived and traces weil s consistent conception of a mind body dualism in the cartesian sense to a dualism that places the mind within a carnal part of the soul and establishes an eternal part of the soul as the essence of human beings helen cullen argues that in weil s early conception of human nature her cartesian conception of perception already shows a glimpse of the eternal weil s dualistic conception also forms the basis of her political analysis of the left of her time and through working in factories and in the fields she develops a conception of labour as a theory of action and work with a method weil was influenced by leading thinkers of her time prompting her to do an analysis of current scientific theories cullen argues that weil s analysis of christianity already present in greek philosophy shows us a theory of identical thought inherited from the east india and china and brought forth by peoples around israel this theory leads to weil s analysis developed in the need for roots of how we ve been uprooted through colonization and how we can grow roots in a free local society both rural and urban idealism pragmatism and feminism provides an account of the life and writings of ella lyman cabot 1866 1934 a woman who received formal training but not formal recognition in the field of classical american philosophy it highlights the themes of idealism pragmatism and feminism as they emerged in the course of career as an educational reformer and ethicist that spanned nearly four decades cabot s writings developed in graduate seminars at harvard and radcliffe at the turn of the century complement and in many cases anticipate the thinking of the fathers of the american philosophical cannon charles sanders peirce josiah royce william james and john dewey her formal philosophical writing focuses on the concepts of growth creativity and the moral imagination a fact that is especially interesting given that these concepts are developed by a woman who faced serious obstacles in her personal and intellectual development indeed these concepts are not merely philosophical ideals but practical tools that ella lyman cabot used to negotiate the gender roles and intellectual marginalization that she faces at the turn of the century the discipline of philosophy was very slow to incorporate the insights of women into its self definition an analysis of the writings of ella lyman cabot reveals this point but also the pointed ways in which she sought to express her genuinely creative insights
