this book presents the history and theoretical contributions of brazilian geography since the late twentieth century and shows how this sphere of knowledge has been organically integrated with social and territorial issues and with social movements the relationship between the subjects and objects of research in brazilian geography has been centred on the understanding and transformation of realities marked by injustice and inequality against this backdrop the geography of the country has developed by integrating relating to and forming part of those realities as it headed out into the streets brazilian geography continues to hold theoretical debate in high regard as a result of the influence of critical theory this book thus covers the theoretical approaches in brazilian geography its different lines of research and above all its character as manifested in culture and society this book takes a long term approach spanning from the end of the 16th to the end of the 19th centuries to explore how men and women in italy france and spain collected displayed and passed down various types of papers the contributors share a core interest in the relationship between social actors and their paper heritage the collectors who come from diverse cultural social and gender backgrounds provide insights into the reasons and processes behind the accumulation valorisation and transmission of their paper heritage unlike most studies on collecting this book shifts the focus away from collections and institutions to the owners of the collected objects and their desires for their accumulated papers this volume covers three centuries and provides insights into the aspirations of collectors and the fate of their papers after transmission it takes place against the backdrop of major social political and cultural changes affecting the italian peninsula the spanish monarchy and france the cultural interests and the collector networks often extended beyond europe as noted by many of the essays in this volume paper heritage in italy france spain and beyond 16th to 19th centuries will interest scholars and students of early modern and modern european history across various fields including social and cultural history intellectual history gender history history of collecting and patronage
