this volume explores how key aspects of no child left behind nclb have transformed the landscape of educational evaluation and ultimately how this process is redefining what evaluation is within the educational evaluation community in their chapters the authors examine case studies critical commentaries and technical information related to the nexus between evaluation and nclb the volume is intended to stimulate conversation around fundamental issues in the discipline of evaluation including blurring the lines among research evaluation and assessment prioritizing summative evaluations over formative using questions to drive research design rather than the reverse balancing accountability requirements with other stakeholder needs exploring the role of evaluation capacity building in an institutional setting understanding the availability and appropriate use of assessment data and defining learning outcomes that are based on standardized test scores alone evaluative activities have become integrated into the fabric of nclb primarily through two core aspects of the legislation responding to accountability systems and implementing scientifically based research one plausible consequence of this close integration is that the purpose design and practice of evaluation may actually be transformed by this legislation this volume describes these transformative influences and then explores the potential consequences this is the 117th volume of the jossey bass quarterly report series new directions for evaluation an official publication of the american evaluation association since 2001 2002 standards based accountability sba provisions of the no child left behind act of 2001 nclb have shaped the work of public school teachers and administrators in the united states nclb requires each state to develop content and achievement standards in several subjects administer tests to measure students progress toward these standards develop targets for performance on these tests and impose a series of interventions on schools and districts that do not meet the targets many states had such systems in place before nclb took effect but since 2001 2002 every state i sloan explores the varied contours of the educational accountability movement that has swept the united states he describes the historical origins and underlying assumptions of present day accountability measures current issues surrounding accountability relationships between the accountability and the standards movements and the role of standardized testing in each of these movements and provides a critical reading of the seemingly divided literature concerning the effects of accountability on public education this volume also focuses on the implications of accountability measures on parents families and communities including details of the varied efforts by grassroots organizations that have raised concerns over current accountability measures while there has been a substantial amount of parent and community opposition to both state and national accountability policies increasingly these organizations are offering suggestions for ways to make accountability measures better and more responsive to both community and student needs the work concludes by offering valuable suggestions about improving even strengthening accountability measures in ways that are more responsive and respectful of students their families and local communities
