the mahatma letters to a p sinnett is a foundational work of the theosophical movement first published in 1923 by a trevor barker this volume gathers most of the letters sent by mahatmas morya and koot hoomi to a p sinnett and a o hume between the years 1880 and 1884 the original letters are in the british library this is a new release of the original 1923 edition a rigorous historical and philosophical examination of the controversial spiritual masters who guided madame h p blavatsky in opening the world to eastern and esoteric spirituality in the late nineteenth century in the late nineteenth century russian noblewoman and occult philosopher madame h p blavatsky enthralled the world with revelations of an ancient secret doctrine behind the major faiths and a cosmic theology that united the insights of religion and science blavatsky said she was operating under the guidance of hidden masters of wisdom or mahatmas who led her to reveal forgotten wisdom to modern people the mythos of blavatsky s masters left a deep mark on western culture and spawned more than a century of debate were the masters real what did they teach are they reachable today now independent scholar of religion edward abdill provides an authoritative historically reliable and delightfully readable study of the background and ideas of the masters in particular highlighting their message and its enduring relevance this work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it this work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work this work is in the public domain in the united states of america and possibly other nations within the united states you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work as a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public we appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant no other book is quite like this private collection of letters preserved in the british library they were written between 1880 and 1884 to alfred p sinnett editor of a leading anglo indian newspaper the pioneer his correspondents were two mahatmas whom h p blavatsky has acknowledged as her teachers and the inspirers of her isis unveiled and the secret doctrine first published in 1923 this important volume is filled with sublime philosophical and ethical instruction revealing not only far reaching concepts of religious and scientific thought since proven in large degree prophetic but also practicality warmth of heart patience and ripeness of humour the letters moreover yield a clearer understanding of h p blavatsky and of the mahatmas aim in fostering universal brotherhood this book has been considered by academicians and scholars of great significance and value to literature this forms a part of the knowledge base for future generations so that the book is never forgotten we have represented this book in a print format as the same form as it was originally first published hence any marks or annotations seen are left intentionally to preserve its true nature excerpt from the mahatma letters to a p sinnett from the mahatmas m k h the seven sections suggest themselves as more or less natural divisions but it should be remembered that as letters in one section often contain matter which also relates to the other sections considerable overlapping is unavoidable however an attempt has been made and that is the best that can be said about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy modern theosophy expresses the ancient wisdom tradition found in all religions when h p blavatsky founder of the theosophical society in 1875 told english journalist a p sinnett she had gained her paranormal knowledge from more evolved beings called the mahatmas sinnett asked to communicate with them himself the result was a remarkable correspondence carried on from 1880 to 1885 with mahatmas khoot hoomi and morya recorded in the mahatma letters to a p sinnett the answers of these teachers form an essential part of theosophical literature at the time the letters stormed the bastions of racial and religious prejudice and they continue to fascinate those seeking to probe the mysteries of the universe and the nature of consciousness here is the most comprehensive magisterial discussion of the mahatma letters since they were first published in 1924 eminent theosophist joy mills bases her commentary on vincente hao chin s 1999 edition of the letters helpfully arranged chronologically to enable following the exposition as it originally unfolded mills quotes sinnett in emphasizing that the mahatmas purpose was not to put the world into possession of occult knowledge but to train those who proved qualified so that they might ascend the path of spiritual progress her focus then is on not only knowledge of the magnificent occult science but more significantly the ethical and moral values we must embrace to be of service to the world she offers her reflections on over 140 letters in the hope that they may prove useful to fellow students on the journey toward the spiritual heights may these letters call you as they have continued to call me to keep on exploring for truly there is
