radio four has been described as the greatest broadcasting channel in the world the heartbeat of the bbc a cultural icon of britishness and the voice of middle england defined by its rich mix encompassing everything from journalism and drama to comedy quizzes and short stories many of its programs such as today the archers woman s hour the hitchhiker s guide to the galaxy gardeners question time and the shipping forecast have been part of british life for decades others less successful have caused offence and prompted derision born as it was in the swinging sixties radio four s central challenge has been to change with the times while trying not to lose faith with those who see it as a standard bearer for quality authoritativeness or simply old fashioned bbc values in this first major behind the scenes account of the station s history david hendy a former producer for radio four draws on privileged access to the bbc s own archives and new interviews with key personnel to illuminate the arguments and controversies behind the creation of some of its most popular programmes he reveals the station s struggle to justify itself in a television age favouring clear branding and tightly targeted audiences with bitter disputes between the bbc and its fiercely loyal listeners the story of these struggles is about more than the survival of one radio network radio four has been a lightning rod for all sorts of wider social anxieties over the past forty years a kaleidoscopic view of the changing nature of the bbc this book provides a gripping insight into the very nature of british life and culture in the last decades of the twentieth century
