the mysticism of ordinary life presents a new vision of christian mystical theology offering critical interpretations of the theologians philosophers and intersectional feminists who draw on mystical traditions to affirm ordinary life arguing that everyday experiences of divine grace can be an empowering source of social transformation

this dogmatic study addresses two perennial questions first how do we reconcile god s sovereignty with human freedom not just in general but particularly with respect to the church s full understanding of god s plan of salvation as a work of grace second and equally crucial is the question of how we reconcile god s universal salvific will with the mystery of predestination election and reprobation the author of this study does theology within the normative tradition of confessional catholicism and thus in the light of catholic teaching but this study is also an ecumenical work indeed a work in receptive ecumenism and hence he listens attentively to the reflections and arguments not only of his fellow catholic theologians matthias joseph scheeben and hans urs von balthasar but also theologians of the evangelical and reformed traditions john calvin herman bavinck karl barth and g c berkouwer this book concludes with a catholic synthesis regarding the doctrine of divine election in dogmatic and ecumenical perspective
