the collection includes nyerere s ground breaking policy paper education for self reliance which remains a key reference work on progressive and transformative education in a postcolonial context other papers discuss the ethical basis for expanding tertiary level education in a developing country where primary education is not yet established as well as the education needs and rights of school aged children when analyzed in multilingual contexts english is often treated as an entity that is separable from its linguistic environment it is often the case however that multilinguals use english in hybrid and transcultural ways this book explores how multilingual east africans make use of english as a local resource in their everyday practices by examining a range of domains including workplace conversation beauty pageants hip hop and advertising drawing on the bakhtinian concept of multivocality the author uses discourse analysis and ethnographic approaches to demonstrate the range of linguistic and cultural hybridity found across these domains and to consider the constraints on hybridity in each context by focusing on the cultural and linguistic bricolage in which english is often found the book illustrates how multilinguals respond to the tension between local identification and dominant conceptualizations of english as a language for global communication includes entries for maps and atlases
