discipleship describes the process that brings to life that kind of person described in the bible there's no magic formula or mantra to recite here but rather a substantive measure of research with churches and individuals who have wholeheartedly answered the call of jesus to make disciples a compilation of their wisdom and stories it surely guides church leaders and members to practice the intentional efforts needed to foster an entire culture in which people grow in christian faith and they will grow not because of human research but by the power of the word and of the holy spirit working through the church the same way disciples have always been made when the people of god engage in the mission of god through the spirit of god lives are transformed

a current comprehensive and clear defense of the deity of christ the central theological claim of christianity that jesus is god incarnate finds eager detractors across a wide spectrum from scholars who interpret jesus as a prophet angel or guru to adherents of progressive christianity and non christian religions and philosophies yet thorough biblical scholarship strongly supports the historic christian teaching on the deity of christ authors robert m bowman jr and j ed komoszewski follow the approach of their landmark 2007 study on the same topic putting jesus in his place they focus on five pillars of new testament teaching using the acronym hands and demonstrate what both jesus and the earliest believers recognized namely that jesus shares in the honors that are due god attributes of god names of god deeds that god does seat of god's eternal throne the incarnate christ and his critics engage objections to the divine identity of jesus from jehovah's witnesses mormons progressive christians muslims unitarians and others bowman and komoszewski show how biblical scholarship cannot reasonably ignore the enduring wide ranging and positive case for the deity of christ
