the authors of the new testament regularly quote and allude to old testament passages that point to the presence person and work of jesus jesus himself claimed that moises wrote about him john 5 46 and on the road to emmaus jesus instructed the disciples from moises and all the prophets regarding himself luke 24 27 though christians affirm that the old testament bears witness to christ how the old testament writers did this is a matter of extensive debate furthermore christian biblical scholars also debate the degree to which contemporary interpreters of the bible can follow the hermeneutics of the new testament authors in using the old testament to point to the person and work of jesus christ five views on christ in the old testament is the first book to bring together in conversation the major views on how the old testament points to christ contributors and views include the first testament priority view john goldingay the christotelic view tremper longman iii the redemptive historical christocentric view jason derouchie the reception centered intertextual view havilah dharamraj the premodern view craig carter each contributor presents their preferred methodology showing readers how their interpretive approach best explains the biblical data additionally authors provide case studies of various old testament passages that equip readers to better compare the strengths and weaknesses of each of author s approaches this essential resource will help readers learn practical steps to help them read the old testament more faithfully as it testifies to jesus the messiah this collection of essays focuses on divination across the ancient world from early mesopotamia to late antiquity the authors deal with the forms theory and poetics of this important and still poorly understood ancient phenomenon the old testament both tells the story of israel and points to the coming messiah kaiser distinguishes between old testament passages that describe national israel s glorious future and those that point to christ and his kingdom kaiser s chronological approach traces israel s developing concept of messiah through different time periods the author of hebrews is arguing that god himself has brought about the fulfillment of these institutions through his son s priesthood his once for all sacrifice and the new covenant he inaugurated in the last days these new institutions are never denied the jews in fact the context of the epistle presumes that these are primarily for the jews considering that the author was speaking to a jewish christian community the author is not arguing for the abandonment by god of the jewish people but rather for the abandonment of the shadowy means by which god s people drew near to him it is here we can speak of a qualified supersessionism according to the author of hebrews the levitical priesthood the mosaic covenant and the levitical sacrifices have been superseded by jesus priesthood the new covenant and jesus once for all sacrifice however we conclude that the polemical passages in hebrews do not promote hatred of the jews nor do they advocate the destruction of the jewish people rather the author of hebrews stresses the fulfillment of specific jewish institutions for the benefit of the jews it is this idea of fulfillment that rules out the charge that the epistle promotes the supercession of the jewish people because of god s great love for his people he has provided a superior way by which his people can draw near to him from the conclusion
