the canon of french literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student french literature courses the first study in english of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in french from the numerous french speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering africa french canada the creole islands and

Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and a level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies they also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition this introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches the texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area

Quebec's early novels are full of sacred themes and motifs devotional objects and practices parables and scripture priests and nuns transcendence divinity and eternity yet the critical gaze of the past fifty years has seldom engaged the idea of the sacred in a sustained way indeed the presence of the sacred has alienated modern and postmodern readers who ignore or downplay its significance leading to misguided assessments of these works as mediocre and even unreadable for contemporary audiences the sense of the sacred in the early novels of quebec reexamines seven classic novels at the foundations of quebec s national literature patrice lacombe s la terre paternelle 1846 p j o chauveau s charles guérin 1853 antoine gérin lajoie s jean rivard 1874 philippe aubert de gaspé s les anciens canadiens 1863 laure conan s angéline de montbrun 1884 louis hémon s maria chapdelaine 1916 and félix antoine savard s menaud maître draveur 1937 through chapters that focus on sacred themes character analysis narrative temporalities and the hermeneutics of the sacred lisa gasbarrone demonstrates that these novels are more nuanced and innovative than their reputation has allowed the sense of the sacred in the early novels of quebec reintroduces readers to classic works of french canadian literature that ironically and provocatively cast their quarrel with modernity in that essentially modern form the novel this unique study explores how quebec s landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as cartier and champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province william j berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of british and american influences focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation literature and painting in quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of french canadian nationhood as such literature and painting in quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the quebecois
