the universal law of giving and receiving has a remarkable impact on humankind in many ways it either allows them to live in abundance or prevents them from doing so the entire idea is to give away whatever one earns in life and then the universe will return it to him after fulfilling a cycle of giving and receiving as a result the universal law of giving and the universal law of receiving go hand in hand it is a cycle that needs to be finished when somebody is needy it is an act of decency to give what he wants the strict refusal may eventually prompt the power of the universe to prevent the giver from gifting anything it will take away everything the person owns leaving him empty handed besides if there is someone only interested in giving the universe will stop the flow of the donations as it is one way traffic the essence is to share what is in hand one may note that giving something to someone does not guarantee that he will receive something in the bargain he will probably not get it back in the same motion one of the spiritual rules of prosperity and success is the law of giving and receiving because giving and receiving are two sides of the same coin it might be considered a natural thing that stays perpetual on a purely energetic basis they are inter connected giving and receiving are closely linked and people cannot think of one without the other if somebody tries to interrupt the flow of either of these traits the process will come to a halt although it appears to be straightforward that all individuals give in some form yet all of them desire to receive something against it people mostly don't know how to offer because they are perplexed by misunderstandings about the gifting process and restricting notions and concerns they also don't know how to get over the subconscious barriers kept in between sometimes people believe they have been wronged and not given anything it is common to know how upset some parents become when their children do not give a penny to them they are so ungrateful for not giving their parents the attention and respect they need even though they have received so much from them most people associate giving with charity and donating money there are many ways to give and participate and without the process of giving and taking humankind would not exist i would define the process of giving by first making sure we understand why we are giving and the reason we are giving must be linked to the person or organisation we are giving to we must listen observe and empathise to understand the needs of the receiving party so that we give the right thing at the right time and in the right way giving can be described as the act of thoughtful actions towards a person which will bring positive and constructive benefits to their life people give not because they have but because they have an inherent urge to give in fact many well known philanthropists did not start their charity work when they got rich they probably didn't know that they would become rich even without any material gift to offer sharing your ideas can have immense personal benefits however you must first give to yourself i.e. set up your own goals for self growth peace of mind and empowerment to live the moment in order to genuinely love others we need to love ourselves first we need to cultivate self acceptance and strengthen our self esteem today scientific research provides compelling data to support the notion that giving one's time talents and treasures is a powerful pathway to finding purpose transcending difficulties and ultimately finding fulfillment and meaning in life by giving out what you have without expecting anything in return you start living a meaningful life if you find meaning in the lives of those in need and do something about it you will also find meaning in your own life the act of giving will enhance the quality of life of the recipient and enrich the inner well being of the person who is giving make giving part of who you are
