excerpt from law dictionary use of students and the legal profession the need of an abridged law dictionary which should contain the substance of the unabridged dictionaries is conceded on all sides mr brown s english law dictionary seemed to supply this want in great britain but some changes were required to adapt it to american law and some additions were found desirable to render it complete the american editor has therefore made occasional changes in the text and while in some instances considerable matter has been stricken out as being without usefulness or interest to the american law student yet many new titles have been added and several definitions have been entirely rewritten the new titles are indicated by an asterisk other modifications it has been found impracticable to indicate it has not been the design to entirely americanize the work but only to conform it to the common law as existing in this country the statutory law of the different states and of the united states could not be embraced within the limits of this work even if that were appropriate in a law
