steven berkoff is a playwright director and actor largely disregarded by theater scholars since the 1960s however this notorious cockney enfant terrible and scourge of the shakespeare industry has left an imprint on modern british theatre that has been as impossible to ignore as his in your face stage presence steven berkoff and the theatre of self performance the first thorough and in depth study of this contentious artist examines the wide ranging strategies adopted by berkoff in the construction and projection of his larger than life public persona writing adaptations and translations for the stage is a practical guide for writing adapted works for theatrical performance broadway translator and dramaturg allison horsley and award winning playwright and educator jacqueline goldfinger take readers step by step through the brainstorming writing revision and performance processes for translations and adaptations the book includes lectures case studies writing exercises and advice from top theater professionals on the process of creating pitching and producing adaptations and translations covering a wide range of topics such as jukebox musicals shakespeare adaptations plays from novels theater for young adults and theater in translation and using indigenous language artists who share their wisdom in this book include des mcanuff tony award emily mann tony award dominique morisseau broadway adaptor tony award nominee macarthur genius fellow lisa peterson obie award lortel award sarah ruhl broadway playwright tony award nominee pulitzer prize finalist macarthur genius fellow and tina satter broadway director obie award guggenheim fellowship the book also features interviews with artists working both in the us and internationally as well as guest columns from artists who work in less traditional adaptive forms including cabaret burlesque opera community engaged process and commercial theater writing adaptations and translations for the stage is an essential resource for students and instructors of dramatic writing playwriting and creative writing courses and for aspiring playwrights taken decade by decade derek jarman s life is a virtual encapsulation of the social and cultural history of the latter half of the twentieth century from post war austerity through the liberated sixties and the perplexing seventies to the eighties of aids and thatcherism always influential in artistic and film making terms and within the gay community jarman had attained before his death a figurehead status that is now very generally recognised and can only increase with time his extraordinary garden in dungeness in kent has become a major tourist attraction and his films still compel massive critical attention tony peake was derek jarman s literary agent and knew him well his authorised biography is based on first hand interviews and primary research and does immense justice to a brilliant and singular subject the low critical opinion of dramatic adaptations of prose works makes clear that the dramatic text is widely seen as unable to compete with the narrative text that it adapts privileging the text of a play as the site of meaning is inadequate however given the social nature of theatre rather the socio historical context of a production must be investigated to flesh out the meaning of the text in dramatic production in this study four theatrical adaptations of franz kafka s novel the trial 1925 from different decades and countries and in three different languages illustrate a history not only of kafka reception but also of society politics and theatrical practice in western europe and canada the diversity of these visions of kafka s work pleads for the acceptance of dramatic adaptation as a creative form of interpretation rather than as an ill advised misappropriation of its source a collection of derek jarman filmscripts which with the exception of jubilee were never filmed entries include critical commentary brief biographical information a portrait when available a list of principal works and may also include a further reading section dreams and deconstructions is an illustrated account of the development of alternative theatre in britain over the past 20 years or so it assesses the achievements of political theatre the impact of feminism the expansion of community and ethnic theatre and the growth of the important but often neglected areas of theatre in education and children s theatre the books also surveys the work of the performance art groups and the actor based workshops looks at lunch time theatre the new fringe venues and the regional reps and considers the benefits and constraints of public patronage significantly it turns the spotlight on that new generatoin of angry young playwrights to emerge after the watershed year of 1968 0 writers such as howard brenton david hare snoo wilson and david edgar whose work is central to any discussion of alternative theatre alternate theatre has redefined the relationship between theatre and society and has een openly politically critical of the social democratic process it has challenged the traditional ideologies of the established commercial and subsidized theatres and has attempted to find different audiences that and new forms of dramatic expressions dreams and deconstruction is the first book to seek to understand and analyse that process of redefinition which has been arguable the more exciting development in British theatre in recent years back cover
