compiled by s y agnon one of the greatest hebrew writers of the twentieth century and winner of the 1966 nobel prize in literature days of awe is the long acknowledged classic companion to the high holy days prayerbook here in one volume are readings from the meditations from the bible the talmud the midrash and the zohar to deepen the spiritual experience of the holiest days of the jewish year more than three hundred texts selected from the vast storehouse of jewish literature from ancient to modern times are arranged to follow the order of the synagogue service for the high holy days from the moment of its appearance writes judah goldin in the introduction this volume seemed as though it had always been here as though it had always been the companion of the holiday prayerbook this volume offers a thorough introduction to jewish world literatures in spanish and portuguese which not only addresses the coexistence of cultures but also the functions of a literary and linguistic space of negotiation in this context from the middle ages to present day the compendium explores the main jewish chapters within spanish and portuguese language world literature whether from europe latin america or other parts of the world no comprehensive survey of this area has been undertaken so far yet only a broad focus of this kind can show how diasporic jewish literatures have been and are while closely tied to their own traditions deeply intertwined with local and global literary developments and how the aesthetic praxis they introduced played a decisive formative role in the history of literature with this epistemic claim the volume aims at steering clear of isolationist approaches to jewish literatures some years ago an englishwoman a relative of the then archbishop of canterbury asked s y agon whether there exists in traditional judaism anything corresponding in its high drama and intense power to the old easter rituals in response to this challenge and to his own unceasing quest for style and structure agon composed this literary tone poem on the days of awe taking his materials from the vast storehouse of hebrew literature of all ages he illustrated the procession of the high holy days from the period of preparation for the day of judgment to the closing of the gates profound religious mediation moving homily travelers reports conversation and memoir drama and pathos at once simple and majestic the greatest hebrew writer of our time studied thousands of texts and drew on 300 of them to compose this anthology of jewish wisdom he has arranged them to follow the order of the service of the holy days his own transitional pieces are uncanny in their mastery of tone and are often indistinguishable from their more venerable companions from the moment of its appearance the volume seemed to as though it had always been here as though it had always been the companion of the holy day prayer book writes judah goldin in the new introduction back cover using the dual theme of hearing the word of god and working toward a change of heart. The development of a crescendo as he works through the readings of the days and weeks of lent to the passion and easter
