this book has grown from the international and interdisciplinary conference questioning the new explorations in processes of cultural syncretization in africa and beyond convened at the university of bayreuth in october 2004 knowledge production is a highly political and politicized practice this book questions the way in which knowledge of and about africa is produced and how this influences development policy and practice rebutting both euro and afrocentric production of knowledge this collection proposes a multiple global and dynamic africa centredness in which scholars use whatever concepts and research tools are most appropriate to the different african contexts in which they work in the first part of the book key conceptual themes are raised and the epistemological foundations are laid through questions of gender literature and popular music contributors in the second part apply and test these tools and concepts examining the pressures on doctoral students in a south african university the crisis in knowledge about declining marine fish populations perplexities around why certain ict provisions fail or how some zimbabwean students despite being beset by poverty succeed the light thrown on the mechanics of how knowledge comes into being and in whose interests illuminates one of the key issues in african studies brenda cooper is an honorary research associate at the university of manchester she was for many years the director of the centre for african studies and a professor in the english department at the university of cape town where she is now emeritus professor robert morrell is coordinator of the programme for the enhancement of research capacity at the university of cape town philippians is considered god's spiritual manual on joy and rejoicing but it's more than that this bible study answers the question everyone is asking what would jesus do it is god's revelation on how christians should think in a world whose values and priorities are contrary and often hostile to god and his people this study will teach you how to escape much of the unbiblical thinking that dominates our world lesson titles include the surrendered mind the servant mind the settled mind the sanctified mind this book was written to help heal the hurts of the daughters in this long awaited text women are challenged to let the wisdom of god help them overcome the many seemingly impossible situations they encounter god will touch your life and strengthen you as you enjoy this powerful work especially written to the daughters it covers every aspect a woman deals with in her life from her longing for a husband to how to make her marriage work but most significantly it teaches how to be a precious daughter of god after his heart daughter you can make it is another life changing best seller from a man of god who excels for christ dag heward mills is the founder of lighthouse chapel international which has become a world wide denomination he is the author of a good many best selling books and his radio tv and internet programmes reach millions around the world other outreaches include conferences for pastors and ministers and the renowned anagkazo bible ministry and training centre he is endorsed by such people as dr david yonggi cho in sub saharan africa over the last two decades there has been an explosion of christianity this book sets out to identify its particular character focusing on a particular place greater accra the capital of ghana paul gifford examines a wide range of accra's new churches giving priority to mega churches every dimension discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the bible conventions finances clientele is analysed gifford argues that this christianity is not otherworldly its emphasis is on success achievement wealth here and now yet within this general orientation there is diversity at one end of the spectrum are churches that building on the traditional religious imagination see demonic forces everywhere blocking personal success in the churches the key factor is the special man of god who is understood to have the anointing to conquer these forces to reverse the curse that is holding the believer back at the other end is a strain of this new christianity that discounts spiritual forces and sees victory resulting from the believer's own education and skills and from transforming culture the book also joins the debate over the role of this christianity in modernizing economic and political structures it sets the scene by describing ghana's political and economic situation in the decades when these churches were proliferating and outlines the current debate on the reasons for africa s economic plight it is argued that although focusing on success and wealth can provide motivation in circumstances where it is so easy to despair the pervasive emphasis on miracles militates against any natural fostering of a new work ethic as for their political role some churches are easily co opted others challenge the government but for spiritual reasons that provide little incentive to grapple with issues of governance by contrast gifford finds one important church encouraging change of the entire political culture no other book has set forth the complex nature of africa s new christianity with such clarity or offered such a searching analysis of its power to tackle africa s predicament
