the theme of this volume in honour of eep talstra is tradition and innovation in biblical interpretation with an emphasis on the innovative role of computer assisted textual analysis it focusses on the role of tradition in biblical interpretation and of the innovations brought about by ict in reconsidering existing interpretations of texts grammatical concepts and lexicographic practices questions addressed include how does the role of exegesis as the clarification of one's own tradition in order to understand choices and preferences talstra relate to the critical role which scripture has towards this tradition how does the indebtedness to tradition of computer driven philology relate to its innovative character and how does computer assisted analysis of the biblical texts lead to new research methods and results in this work arie w zwiep examines the gospel stories of the raising of jairus's daughter and the healing of the haemorrhaging woman mark 5 21 43 matt 9 18 26 luke 8 40 56 from a plurality of sometimes conflicting interpretive strategies to demonstrate the need and fruitfulness of a multi-perspectival exegetical approach among the various diachronic and synchronic methods that are being applied in this study are philological criticism form criticism and structural analysis tradition and redaction criticism orality studies and performance criticism narrative analysis textual criticism and the study of intertextuality such a comprehensive approach it is argued leads to an increased knowledge and a deepened understanding of the ancient texts in question and to a sharpened awareness of the applicability of current scholarly research instruments to unlock documents from the past this book examines the issues surrounding the process of forming the marriage bond and is a delightful mix of sophisticated theology solid family systems theory and clear practical guidelines for pastors all illustrated by numerous wonderful stories charles w taylor professor church divinity school of the pacific berkeley california approaching us in sovereign freedom god comes alive to us we come alive to god and all creation comes alive as a sign pointing to god in the gospel of jesus christ god gives and discloses himself in this immediate way as our ultimate context and host within the provisional medium of creation this life giving gospel is met by blindness however among those who live today in a collapsing western culture this is because their imaginative world is shaped by habitual assumptions and practices that lie largely unacknowledged deep within that culture and that preclude openness to the gospel moreover western christians themselves widely share these assumptions betraying the gospel into cultural captivity god calls for the conversion of western culture to the living gospel crucially this must include as lesslie newbigin recognized a repentance from modern western assumptions about knowledge part one explores seeking knowing and serving god as providing a true paradigm for understanding all human enquiry knowledge and action part two examines ten resulting hot spots where conversion from prevailing cultural assumptions is vital for authentic mission to western culture scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today the implications of the amsterdam way of interpreting scripture are evident throughout the book it is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society the prophetic call to love and justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the bible as one of the founders of the amsterdam way of interpretation karel deurloo stated the opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the bible has been taken away often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches instead deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of god today this alternative is rooted in the hebrew scriptures its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the gospels and apostolic letters hence the choice of subtitle rediscovering the old testament it is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the bible for our lives draws analogies between jung s archetypal symbols of the mythic hero and the hero as exemplified in the new testament story of jesus the essence of human life patterns and the hero myth as discussed by jung offer strong parallels to the gospel stories of jesus and reveal the god given pattern of existence that is embodied by jesus christ
