a whimsical cross between kubrick and kafka the mouse that roared is a quirky classic of world literature a poignant tale of political morality and a hilarious ultimately triumphant portrait of international relations from the perspective of the little guy

this is a book about the long cultural shadow cast by a single bestselling novel anthony hope s the prisoner of zenda 1894 which introduced ruritania a colourful pocket kingdom in this swashbuckling tale englishman rudolf rassendyll impersonates the king of ruritania to foil a coup but faces a dilemma when he falls for the lovely princess flavia hope s novel inspired stage and screen adaptations place names and even a board game but it also launched a whole new subgenre the ruritanian romance the new form offered swordplay royal romance and splendid uniforms and gowns in such settings as alasia balaria and cadonia this study explores both the original appeal of the prisoner of zenda and the extraordinary longevity and adaptability of the ruritanian formula which it is argued has been rooted in a lingering fascination with royalty and the pocket kingdom's capacity to hold a looking glass up to Britain and later the United States. Individual chapters look at Hope's novel and its stage and film adaptations at the forgotten American versions of Ruritania at the chocolate box principalities of the musical stage at cold war reworkings of the formula and at Ruritania's recent reappearance in young adult fiction and made for television Christmas movies. The adventures of Ruritania have involved a diverse list of contributors including John Buchan P. G. Wodehouse Agatha Christie Vladimir Nabokov and Ian Fleming among the writers Sigmund Romberg and Ivor Novello among the composers Erich von Stroheim and David O. Selznick among the film makers and Robert Donat Madeleine Carroll Peter Ustinov Peter Sellers and Anne Hathaway among the performers.

Bill Warren's Keep Watching the Skies was originally published in two volumes in 1982 and 1986. It was then greatly expanded in what we called the 21st century edition with new entries on several films and revisions and expansions of the commentary on every film in addition to a detailed plot synopsis, full cast and credit listings and an overview of the critical reception of each film. Warren delivers richly informative assessments of the films and a wealth of insights and anecdotes about their making. The book contains 273 photographs, many rare, 35 in color, has seven useful appendices and concludes with an enormous index. This book is also available in hardcover format. ISBN 978 0 7864 4230 0

From the very infancy of the film industry, filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material. Well known literary works such as Dickens's A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era, as were such books as Thomas Dixon Jr.'s The Klansman. Basis for the film Birth of a Nation. In recent years, Nick Hornsby's About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding's Bridget Jones's Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names. A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films. This volume includes books, both fiction and non-fiction, short stories, newspaper and magazine articles and poems. Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title, with cross-listings for films made under different titles. Each entry includes the original work's title, author, year of first publication, literary prizes and a brief plot summary. Information on film adaptation, including adaptation titles, director, screenwriter, principal cast and the names of the characters they portray, major awards and availability in the most common formats (DVD, VHS) is also offered.

In Leonard Wibberley's classic political satire, a tiny backwards country decides the only way to survive a sudden economic downturn is to declare war on the United States and lose to get foreign aid. But things don't go according to plan. The Mouse That Roared was made into a successful feature film in 1959, starring Peter Sellers. Praise for the bestselling classic as funny as it is charming. The New York Times, along with his beautifully cockeyed humor, his lovely faculty for needlesharp ironic jabs delivered where they'll do the most good, and his nice talent for storytelling, Wibberley has serious things to suggest and he suggests them admirably. San Francisco Chronicle, Ingenious, Christian Science Monitor, Fantastic, Uproarious, Farce, taken as a plea for sanity in an era that often makes no sense whatsoever. The Mouse That Roared has a lot for readers to ponder. Saturday Review, an enchanting performance. Wibberley has further polished his sound and pleasant style, whose unruffled simplicity points up the humor and contributes a good deal of our entranced suspension of disbelief. New York Herald Tribune, The Grand Fenwick book series, books 2 through 5 are best read after the Mouse That Roared, but all of the books can be read and
