an introduction to film appreciation covering the techniques and principles of film production substantially revised for this edition a history of film is a comprehensive international survey of film from its beginnings to the present this text highlights the contributions of major film producing countries significant filmmakers and their films within social artistic economic and technological contexts this sixth edition incorporates major revisions designed to improve the book s focus and provide more balanced coverage new to the sixth edition includes new chapters on indian and chinese cinemas emphasizing the exploding film industry in these two countries adds a chapter on the digital future in american film bringing the text up to date with latest technological and industrial developments discusses more women filmmakers throughout the text and adds a section on asian american filmmakers expanding the diversity and inclusiveness of the text replaces many illustrations with new examples most of them frame enlargements and specifically keys all illustrations to discussions in the text ensuring that the images will be valuable learning tools for students adds more extended analyses of individual films helping students grasp large historical questions by presenting them within specific cases rather than in abstract generalities provides a new glossary helping students understand the technical foreign language and industry terms used in the text praise for a history of film the reason why i selected a history of film over all of the other textbooks has to do with the basic approach of the subject of film as a developing art form while paying careful attention to film genres and history the organizational structure of the chapters a clear and authoritative writing style that explains the interconnectivity of film as a global phenomenon and the use of judiciously selected stills in support of the text the structure organization and content of a history of film is so good that it is to me still the standard by which all other film textbooks must be measured stephen ambra new hampshire technical institute the text concisely covers all of film history and its size makes it particularly useful for film history courses taught in a single term it is typically quite insightful yet not too dense for motivated introductory students mark gallagher university of missouri building on students enthusiasm for movies this text is more successful than any other at motivating students to understand and analyze film in the new sixth edition author dave monahan has thoroughly revised the book for clarity and currency while adding new interactive learning tools to support student learning from product description for almost thirty years david thomson s biographical dictionary of film has been not merely the finest reference book ever written about movies graham fuller interview not merely the desert island book of art critic david sylvester not merely a great crazy masterpiece geoff dyer the guardian but also fiendishly seductive greil marcus rolling stone this new edition updates the older entries and adds 30 new ones darren aronofsky emmanuelle beart jerry bruckheimer larry clark jennifer connelly chris cooper sofia coppola alfonso cuaron richard curtis sir richard eyre sir michael gambon christopher guest alejandro gonzalez inarritu spike jonze wong kar wai laura linney tobey maguire michael moore samantha morton mike myers christopher nolan dennis price adam sandler kevin smith kiefer sutherland charlize theron larry wachowski and andy wachowski lew wasserman naomi watts and ray winstone in all the book includes more than 1300 entries some of them just a pungent paragraph some of them several thousand words long in addition to the new musts thomson has added key figures from film history lively anatomies of graham greene eddie cantor pauline kael abbott and costello Noël Coward Hoagy Carmichael Dorothy Gish Rin Tin Tin and more here is a great rare book one that encompasses the chaos of art entertainment money vulgarity and nonsense that we call the movies personal opinionated funny daring provocative and passionate it is the one book that every filmmaker and film buff must own time out named it one of the ten best books of the 1990s gavin lambert recognized it as a work of imagination in its own right now better than ever a masterwork by the man playwright david hare called the most stimulating and thoughtful film critic now writing
