on october 14 1953 pope pius xii presided over the dedication of the new pontifical north american college seminary on the janiculum hill above saint peter s basilica nearly one hundred years had passed since the seminary s founding and the pope considered the new campus completion a stronger flame of hope for the church in the united states of america and in the world devotion to the holy father the grace of priestly ordination and a solid training in the church s teachings were the three treasures that young men trained at the nac brought back with them to the united states as priests in this follow up to father robert mcnamara s monumental work the american college in rome 1855 1955 monsignor stephen m digiovanni advances the history of the college over the next quarter century the american students in the 1950s were not the same as those who had lived in the old seminary during the previous century the world was very different after numerous revolutions social upheavals and two world wars other forces were at work as well including some changes just beginning to take place in american society which would become radically and publicly manifest on american university and seminary campuses during the next decades even in rome if prior to the second vatican council everything was clear and regimented then during and after the council less and less was clear cut or well defined on the hill of janus in fact few could have predicted the aggiornamento or updating that was on the horizon that would profoundly reshape for better or worse the nac and its future priests this handbook presents a timely broad ranging and provocative overview of the essential nature of ecotourism the chapters will both advance the existing central themes of ecotourism and provide challenging and divergent observations that will thrust ecotourism into new areas of research policy and practice the volume is arranged around four key themes sustainability ethics and identity change conflict and consumption and environment and learning with a total of 28 chapters the first section focuses on sustainability as a core ecotourism criterion with a primary focus on some of the macro sustainability issues that have an impact on ecotourism foremost among these topics is the linkage to the un s sustainable development goals which have relevance to ecotourism as one of the greenest or most responsible forms of tourism the chapters in the second section provide a range of different topics that pull ecotourism research into new directions including a chapter on enriching indigenous ecotourism through culturally sensitive universalism the third section includes chapters on topics ranging from persons with disabilities as a neglected body of research in ecotourism to ecotourism as a form of luxury consumption the final section emphasises the link between ecotourism and learning about the natural world including a deeply theoretical chapter on rewilding europe with contributions from authors around the world this handbook gives a global platform to local voices in both developed and emerging country contexts the multidisciplinary and international routledge handbook of ecotourism will be of great interest to researchers students and practitioners working in tourism and sustainability the travel and hospitality industry in the 21st century cannot be conceived planned advertised run or researched without the use of digital technology and innovation sustainable development in this sector cannot be achieved without considering the fourth industrial revolution the use of technology not only enhances the industry s profitability but also helps it to respond effectively to pressing global sustainability issues such as pandemics climate change energy crises workforce shortages and hyperinflation furthermore technology allows the sector to fully evaluate its current and future economic social and environmental impacts addressing the needs of tourists businesses the environment and destinations however implementing technology is not a simple process and involves various opportunities costs and challenges that differ depending on the geopolitical and socio economic context with the drive towards disability inclusion digitalisation technological innovations and inventions can play a significant role in universal design and reasonable accommodation for older people and populations with disabilities in the global north and south such forms one of the key pillars of accessible tourism and hospitality in the context of the above and in response to the thoughtful need for new and sustained study of the developments interrelationships potentialities of the topic and synergies this edited book explores the trends opportunities challenges and complexities of digitalisation and technology integration in the tourism and hospitality industry as well as strategic shifts that will contribute to emerging research streams the book comprises contributions that generate theoretical insights empirical findings and evidence based recommendations by focusing on emerging and forecasted technologies used in the tourism and hospitality industry such as blockchains robots artificial intelligence virtual reality big data and analytics the aim is to provide a better understanding of how disruptive technologies and digitalisation are currently being utilised and how they currently and potentially influence various stakeholder groups as well as their future possibilities and impossibilities the third volume in a three volume set primarily covers how these new technologies impact consumers and employees of tourism related services this significant volume is the first to use primary research evidence to examine tourism ageing and the implications of an ageing population for the visitor economy adopting a multidisciplinary approach this book offers insights into the new opportunities threats and challenges that the growing ageing tourism markets poses the ageing population has created a demographic time bomb with a population structure that is skewed towards a growing proportion of older people when this is combined with the impact of health conditions such as dementia the future shape of visitor demand and tourism behaviour is likely to change and face many new challenges albeit at different rates in time and space chapters include cutting edge insights into future issues while interviews are used to illustrate and explain issues affecting ageing and tourism creating a much needed synthesis of the ageing tourism nexus to demonstrate intellectual leadership around this theme this book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of tourism hospitality leisure studies and health and social care
