the day a judge gave me the choice between going to prison or going to college was the day i vowed to stop stealing never again would i see something beautiful and beyond my means and take it just because i wanted it just because i could when i moved in with jerry it was with good intentions i needed a place to live while i got my degree and he needed a roommate then i saw aster blond and beautiful good pure sweet smart and jerry s girlfriend she was everything i never thought i could have except maybe i can so i put a plan into action yeah i d probably go to hell but it would be worth it i wanted aster i wanted her yesterday and tomorrow and every possible way but you know what they say be careful what you wish for because you just might get it miranda and her daughters turns the cinderella story on its head stepmothers traditionally get a terrible rap fathers and mothers even mothers in law may be good or bad but stepmothers are always wicked but now that blended families are almost the norm we need to challenge the stereotype miranda addresses the issue head on in a way that is quirky sexy playful and at times serious it takes the storyline from the brothers grimm but brings it up to date gives it a distinctly adult flavor and sets it between london england and portland oregon the tale will appeal to women and men who take on the difficult job of raising other people s children as well as their own more it provides the missing back story how cinderella s father met his second wife or why the new wife s two daughters had a problem with shoes above all it shows that the protagonists in most cobbled together marriages are well meaning if only human in the late 1800 s vauxhall located on the banks of the river thames was an area of depravity its population mainly unemployed were either sick or poverty stricken desperately in need of both spiritual and medical care in 1892 a certain catholic priest father william francis brown arrived in vauxhall his purpose to start a catholic mission to the poor and needy of vauxhall against all odds he built a school then his church in doing so he created his parish his next aim was to establish his settlement he purchased a hall and four houses during which time father brown was introduced to a nurse who had been trained in midwifery and child welfare with a character similar to his own and spirit of determination to succeed in administering medical help to the sick and needy her name was miss grace gordon smith between them they formed a partnership to provide the spiritual and medical treatment for the poor and needy of his parish in 1924 father brown was consecrated a bishop bishop of pella his alliance with grace continued and between them they established an order of nuns and created the dames of st joan to forge the way for a service years ahead of the future national health service in 1935 saw the opening of his settlement which included a youth club for the boys and girls of his school and those outside his parish during the second world war although bombed twice the settlement carried on administering medical care and the youth club never closed in 1944 bishop brown purchased a house in ashstead surrey as a hostel for the youth of london to spend a week end or week away from the bombings of london affectionately known to all members of the youth club as the bish and as old pella to all the people of south london his good work was recognised by the municipal authorities of lambeth who named a block of flats in the lambeth walk pella house this story is the history of one man s dream that came to fruition in the establishment of st anne s roman catholic settlement youth and pella club from its founding in 1892 to the present day
