how different would mythological narratives be if women voiced their perspectives amidst great wars superhuman heroes and their glorious victories is there a place for women are great wars limited to armed conflicts between armies of men on the battlefields do women have their own battles before after and beyond the confines of wars in the epic narratives of india both the ramayana and the mahabharata have integrated into our social and cultural fabric and permeated into the myriad layers of life across genres and media it is a common practice to revisit mythological landscapes and realign the lenses to look at them afresh from different perspectives re renderings often bring in multiple interpretations that are creative and critical adding variety and currency to the original narratives vision and re vision traces the lives of seven marginalized women from revisionist works against the central motif of war it follows the pursuits of ganga surpanakha uruvi sita urmila satyavati and draupadi to understand their struggles and victories as women analyzing textual spaces provided to women it explores their marginalized voices and their resistance patterns these in turn establish new narratives of subversion and reclaim the voices and identities of women from the margins a sound theoretical framework enables a comprehensive understanding of feminism and its distinct indo centric identity this book offers an introduction to the literature on vision and visibility that is relevant to organizational theory proposes a theoretical framework for visual culture in organizations and provides empirical illustrations to the theoretical framework it shows that visual practices are a central procedure in the day to day routines of organizations and are long overdue for close examination of all the anomalous phenomenon reported ghost sightings are by far the most common the words ghost and spirit are used interchangeably in american english but in other cultures the lingering souls of the departed are not to be confused with ancestral spirits demonic spirits numens or poltergeists this encyclopedia lists hundreds of entities of the spirit realm from aatxe to zuzeca from world mythology and folklore using a semiotic approach this study offers an alternative to traditional conceptions of image making exploring historical interpretations of art perspective and photography as well as individual artists such as duchamp and rembrandt presents the conventionalist hypothesis on interpretation of images then rejects the notion that conventions have a special priority in the understanding of images and critiques specific images and their conventionalist definitions annotation copyrighted by book news inc portland or this book constitutes an attempts to show from a slightly different perspective related to literature the power of fuzzy logic as an effective and efficient tool to deal with problems and challenges faced by such human centric fields of science and knowledge humanities and sciences are of two basic cultures of modern society they are intertwined and give rise to a unified and coherent system fuzzy sets and fuzzy logic have been applied mainly in technical scientific fields much less so in the humanities and social psychological cognitive etc sciences there are very good reasons for considering this book from the perspective of fuzzy set theory the first and foremost reason is that the founder of the theory of fuzzy logic I zadeh wished that the principles of the theory of fuzzy logic be initially applied to all kinds of human centric sciences notably social economic psychological cognitive etc sciences characterized by unstructured information another reason is tracking the formation of our ancient ancestor s mindware in the epos the book of dede korkut and seeking an answer to the question how much inclination is there towards tolerance and democratic approach in this mindware by using fuzzy logic we hope that this book is interesting for the scholars studying application of fuzzy logic in all human centric sciences exemplified by humanistic social cognitive etc sciences as well as artificial intelligence natural language processing and linguistic summarization
