space is a central topic in cultural and narrative theory today although in most cases theory assumes newtonian absolute space however the idea of a universal homogeneous space is now obsolete black holes multiple dimensions quantum entanglement and spatio temporal distortions of relativity have passed into culture at large this book examines whether narrative can be used to represent these impossible spaces impossible topologies abound in ancient mythologies from the australian aborigines dream time to the multiple layer universe of the sumerians more recently from alice s adventures in wonderland to contemporary science fiction s obsession with black holes and quantum paradoxes counter intuitive spaces are a prominent feature of modern and postmodern narrative with the rise and popularization of science fiction the inventiveness and variety of impossible narrative spaces explodes the author analyses the narrative techniques used to represent such spaces alongside their cultural significance each chapter connects narrative deformation of space with historical problematic of time and demonstrates the cognitive and perceptual primacy of narrative in representing imagining and apprehending new forms of space and time this book offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology cultural theory science fiction and studies of place esent such spaces alongside their cultural significance each chapter connects narrative deformation of space with historical problematic of time and demonstrates the cognitive and perceptual primacy of narrative in representing imagining and apprehending new forms of space and time this book offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology cultural theory science fiction and studies of place this book investigates representations of time in twenty first century anglo american literature in the digital era characterized by a new regime of time fiction offers revisions of prevalent oppressive notions of time that can serve as productive political strategies to reclaim the agency of the subject this book discusses literary texts that craft innovative temporal structures out of sync with the new time logic suspended temporality chapter 1 time as a conflation of phenomenological experience and cosmological laws chapter 2 previewing the future chapter 3 and networked memory chapter 4 the proposed politically productive temporalities such as deep presence or resonance compatibilism contingency and the use of narrative as a chronologizing strategy ground a vision of change and suggest a way out of the crisis of time identifying new timeframes in twenty first century fiction by an array of writers this book demonstrates that literature remains a valid medium for theorizing and representing time as a growing area of research the philosophy of time is increasingly relevant to different areas of philosophy and even other disciplines this book describes and evaluates the most important debates in philosophy of time under several subject areas metaphysics epistemology physics philosophy of language philosophy of mind cognitive science rationality and art questions this book investigates include the following can we know what time really is is time possible especially given modern physics must there be time because we cannot think without it what do we experience of time how might philosophy of time be relevant to understanding the mind body relationship or evidence in cognitive science can the philosophy of time help us understand biases toward the future and the fear of death how is time relevant to art and is art relevant to philosophical debates about time finally what exactly could time travel be and could time travel satisfy emotions such as nostalgia and regret through asking such questions and showing how they might be best answered the book demonstrates the importance philosophy of time has in contemporary thought each of the book s ten chapters begins with a helpful introduction and ends with study questions and an annotated list of further reading this and a comprehensive bibliography at the end of the book prepare the reader to go further in their study of the philosophy of time in dialogue with groundbreaking technologies and scientific models twentieth century fiction presents readers with a vast mosaic of perspectives on the cosmos the literary imagination of the world beyond the human scale however faces a fundamental difficulty if as researchers in both cognitive science and narrative theory argue fiction is a practice geared toward the human embodied mind how can it cope with scientific theories and concepts the big bang quantum physics evolutionary biology and so on that resist our common sense intuitions and appear discontinuous in spatial as well as temporal terms with our bodies this book sets out to answer this question by showing how the embodiment of mind continues to matter even as writers and readers are pushed out of their terrestrial comfort zone offering thoughtful commentary on work by both mainstream literary authors and science fiction writers from primo levi to jeanette winterson from olaf stapledon to pamela zoline embodiment and the cosmic perspective in twentieth century fiction explores the multiple ways in which narrative can radically defamiliarize our bodily experience and bridge the gap with cosmic realities this investigation affords an opportunity to reflect on the role of literature as it engages with science and charts its epistemological and ethical ramifications this volume offers an introduction about theoretical concepts forms and the impact of genocidal violence it thereby intends to serve as a source of texts that can be used in a variety of introductory courses on genocide and the violence that occurs during genocidal events in particular it will consequently also offer a survey on debates and recent research about the history sociology and psychology of violence in a critical companion to wes craven contributors use a variety of theoretical frameworks to analyze distinct areas of craven s work including ecology auteurism philosophy queer studies and trauma this book covers both the successes and failures contained in craven s extensive filmography ultimately revealing a variegated portrait of his career scholars of film studies horror and ecology will find this book particularly interesting this volume brings together emerging approaches and addresses shifting paradigms in chinese science fiction studies offering a window on fan cultures internet fiction gender eco criticism post humanism and biomedical discourse these studies present a second wave of chinese sf studies re evaluating the canon of chinese sf print and cinematic production and expand the range of critical approaches to the subject the structure of the volume is both chronological and theme focused these studies also demonstrate that chinese science fiction represents a significant contribution to modern chinese cultural production both in terms of its value speaking powerfully to our modern condition and its sheer volume in terms of production and consumption chinese science fiction speaks to both china s rapidly shifting reality its political multiplicity and its formless future voicing the anticipations and anxieties of a new epoch filled with accelerating alterations and increasing uncertainty arising from the philosophical conviction that our sense of space plays a direct role in our apprehension and construction of reality both factual and fictional this book investigates how conceptions of postmodern space have transformed the history of the impossible in literature deeply influenced by the work of jorge luis borges and julio cortázar there has been an unprecedented rise in the number of fantastic texts in which the impossible is bound to space space not as scene of action but as impossible element performing a fantastic transgression within the storyworld this book conceptualizes and contextualizes this postmodern fantastic use of space that disrupts the reader s comfortable notion of space as objective reality in favor of the concept of space as socially mediated constructed and conventional in an illustration of the transnational nature of this phenomenon garcía analyzes a varied corpus of the fantastic in the past four decades from different cultures and languages merging literary analysis with classical questions of space related to the fields of philosophy urban studies and anthropology texts include authors such as julio cortázar argentina john barth usa j g ballard uk jacques sternberg belgium fernando iwasaki perú juan josé millás spain and ric faye france this book contributes to literary theory and comparative literature in the areas of the fantastic narratology and geocriticism and informs the continuing interdisciplinary debate on how human beings make sense of space moving from the micro world of quantum physics to the macro scales of earth science and ecology this book considers how in contemporary literature affective experiences like desire suffering anxiety and joy shape scientific persons practices and products this book brings into dialogue close readings of scientific writing and contemporary literary works by authors like jeanette winterson richard powers hanya yanagihara thalia field and jenny offill combining narrative and affect studies it uses formal strategies such as moving metaphor visceral or affective description plot level analogy contraction and rhythm to engage with western scientific epistemologies which still tends towards the impassive universal and objective while each chapter focuses on a different field or fields of science all foreground bodies human and nonhuman as a way of exploring knowledge production through close readings the book argues that select scientific stories raise important questions about how knowledge is defined and who and what is invited into its processes of production rytteriets historie fra de tidligste tider da hesten f rste gang blev anvendt i krig og til og med fransk tyske krig 1870 1871 herunder beskrivelser af rytteriets organisation gennem tiderne den taktiske anvendelse af rytteriet samt beskrivelse af slag hvor rytteriet har spillet en rolle bogen er en prisopgave stillet af den russiske generalinspekt r for det russiske rytteri i 1874 storfyrst nikolaj efter bemyndigelse af zar alexander ii
