what is manipulation how is it used in our everyday lives and why is it such a prevalent force in our society whether you consciously realize it or not you use this tactic and have it used on you very often although some people have a negative association with the word it isn't always a bad thing and can in fact help you a lot in life here are some of the concepts you will learn about in this book automatic mental processes every single human on the planet has been conditioned to behave in certain ways as a response to particular stimuli this is what makes us suggestible to influence and manipulation once you understand this process you can use it to your benefit and also to protect yourself from others positive vs negative manipulation there are different types of manipulation some which are beneficial to all involved and others which are harmful and detrimental in this book you will learn to tell the difference between the two the benefits of positive manipulation ethical manipulation also known as persuasion or influence is one of the most important social skills you can develop when you master this an entire new world opens up to you professionally personally and otherwise protecting yourself from negative manipulators there are always people out there who try to prey on others and use them for their own benefit once you become aware of the tactics they use and why you can effectively protect yourself from this happening to you when you know what to watch for you will never fall victim to a person like this over the years we have come to the conclusion that persuasion is positive while manipulation is the exact opposite that is not entirely true whether you are persuading or manipulating a person the real difference is your intention according to some of the scholars studying the difference between manipulation and persuasion there are three components determining what a person is doing what intent lies behind your desire to persuade another person how truthful and transparent is the process you are using what is the net impact or benefit of your action to the other person there is manipulative persuasion and dark manipulative persuasion the first type manipulative persuasion normally involves attempts to convince another person to do something without necessarily thinking about tactics or specific motivations anyone can easily use manipulative persuasion because it is not entirely necessary for the manipulator to understand his her victim a persuader will mostly look for ways to make the best out of the people he she is manipulating for instance a politician can try to prevent war by creating peace ties where there were none he she might not fully understand the results of the ties but will try anyway in fact a manipulative persuader can try to grasp at straws wildly hoping to get something on the other hand dark manipulative persuasion involves understanding the bigger picture and strategizing the dark persuader understands the person he she is trying to persuade knows the exact buttons to push and just how far he will go before getting results in most cases manipulators who use dark manipulation techniques are unconcerned with the morality of their actions all he she wants is to fulfill his her desires regardless of the situation the bright side of dark manipulation is that the manipulator is in most cases aware of what he she is doing all of us have manipulated others knowingly or unknowingly there are many things we do to get what we want and in most cases they are harmless this book will tell you more about manipulation and body languages this book covers what is manipulation methods of manipulation developing stages of manipulation art of persuasion dark psychology body language and much more it is said that we as human beings have learned how to manipulate each other selfishly sometimes it is necessary but in most cases you will realize it is unnecessary dark manipulative persuasion often harms perhaps the most unfortunate thing is how the manipulators using dark techniques ignore the damage of their actions for instance many researchers conducted across the world over the years have revealed the harmful effects of smoking cigarettes however the manufacturing companies still make some successful manipulative advertisements leading people to think that this drug is cool consequently the number of diseases and deaths resulting from this manipulation increase those politicians using dark manipulative persuasion techniques to raise into position can facilitate weakened democracy and even foment division
