something went terribly wrong at his monastery and Brendan the navigator had nowhere to turn then a storyteller dropped by his cell at Clonfert Abbey one evening this fortunate visit changed his life and the lives of seventeen monks who set out with him to brave the unknown Atlantic sailing first to the Faroe Islands they found an Eden-like world including a guide a friendly whale and psalm-loving birds eventually they reached the Canary Islands the Caribbean the waters off Labrador and the world's northernmost volcano Mt. Beerenberg this was the first European voyage to the Americas recorded as a story so true it could only become a legend and the world of aesthetics is itself inextricable from the world as a whole indeed as this book argues it is among its essential features and an invaluable key to its appreciation thus to venture into the uncharted world of aesthetics is also to venture into this larger world a world that might be called the cosmos or the universe at the same time to venture into this uncharted realm is to also blaze a trail to the self this trail would itself be paradoxical as it would end where it begins and begin where it ends in this light it may also be said that the uncharted world of aesthetics is the uncharted world of the self this book provides insights into how works about aesthetics are also works reflective of the self as well as works with endless possibilities of being
