a contemporary of giordano bruno and galileo tommaso campanella 1568 1639 was a controversial philosopher theologian astrologer and poet who was persecuted during the inquisition and spent much of his adult life imprisoned because of his heterodox views he is best known today for two works the city of the sun a dialogue inspired by plato's republic in which he prophesies a vision of a unified peaceful world governed by a theocratic monarchy and his well meaning defense of galileo which may have done galileo more harm than good because of campanella's previous conviction for heresy but campanella's philosophical poems are where his most forceful and undiluted ideas reside his poetry is where his faith in observable and experimental sciences his astrological and occult wisdom his ideas about deism his anti aristotelianism and his calls for religious and secular reform most put him at odds with both civil and church authorities for this volume sherry roush has selected campanella's best and most idiosyncratic poems which are masterpieces of sixteenth century italian lyrics displaying a questing mind of great if unorthodox brilliance and showing campanella's passionate belief in the intrinsic harmony between the sacred and secular
