prepared by some of the world's leading new testament scholars this series provides an exposition of the new testament books that is thorough and fully abreast of modern scholarship yet faithful to the scriptures as the infallible word of god we live in a world at war do you know who you are fighting and why weaving through the old and new testaments joel muddamalle uses paul's supernatural household framework the idea that god has both a supernatural and a human family to explain the cosmic worldview of the bible cutting through the noise of conspiracy theories and fanaticism the theological framework in the unseen battle will give readers a biblical and balanced understanding of spiritual warfare readers will gain clarity about geopolitical and cosmic war by understanding what deuteronomy 32:8–9 teaches about our origin story understand what the bible teaches about demons angels and god's divine council and how spiritual warfare impacts believers discover the real reason for the division and disunity in our world and the unexpected but crucial answer we find hiding in plain sight within the supernatural worldview of the bible the unseen battle equips christians to make sense of evil powers what god is doing in the world today and the part we play in it undertaken to provide earnest students of the new testament with an exposition that is thorough and abreast of modern scholarship and at the same time loyal to the scriptures as the infallible word of god this statement reflects the underlying purpose of the new international commentary on the new testament begun in the late 1940s by an international team of new testament scholars the NICNT series has become recognized by pastors students and scholars alike as a critical yet orthodox commentary marked by solid biblical scholarship within the evangelical protestant tradition while based on a thorough study of the greek text the commentary introductions and expositions contain a minimum of greek references the NICNT authors evaluate significant textual problems and take into account the most important exegetical literature more technical aspects such as grammatical textual and historical problems are dealt with in footnotes special notes and appendixes under the general editorship of three outstanding new testament scholars first ned stonehouse westminster theological seminary philadelphia then f f bruce university of manchester england and now gordon d fee regent college vancouver british columbia the nicnt series has continued to develop over the years in order to keep the commentary new and conversant with contemporary scholarship the nicnt volumes have been and will be revised or replaced as necessary the newer nicnt volumes in particular take into account the role of recent rhetorical and sociological inquiry in elucidating the meaning of the text and they also exhibit concern for the theology and application of the text as the nicnt series is ever brought up to date it will continue to find ongoing usefulness as an established guide to the new testament text
