Question What are the key changes in the latest NFHS basketball rule book? The latest NFHS basketball rule book includes updates on the use of electronic devices during play, clarification on the definition of a player control foul, and adjustments to the shot clock regulations to enhance game flow. How does the NFHS rule book define a traveling violation? According to the NFHS rule book, a traveling violation occurs when a player holding the ball moves one or both feet illegally, such as taking more than two steps without dribbling, or changing their pivot foot illegally. What is the NFHS's stance on technical fouls and their penalties? The NFHS rule book states that technical fouls are penalized with free throws awarded to the opposing team, and the team also retains possession. Certain technical fouls may also lead to player or coach ejections depending on severity. Are there specific rules regarding player equipment in the NFHS basketball rule book? Yes, the NFHS rules specify that players must wear appropriate and safe equipment, including jerseys, shorts, and footwear that meet safety standards. Jewelry and accessories are generally prohibited during play. How does the NFHS rule book define a personal foul? A personal foul is defined as illegal personal contact with an opponent, such as hitting, pushing, or blocking, which occurs during game play and results in free throws or possession changes depending on the situation. What are the rules regarding timeouts in NFHS basketball? Teams are allowed a limited number of timeouts per game, typically five, with each lasting either 60 or 30 seconds, depending on the level. Timeouts can be called by players or coaches during stoppages of play. Does the NFHS rule book specify rules for overtime periods? Yes, the NFHS rules state that if the score is tied at the end of regulation, an overtime period of four minutes is played. Additional overtimes are played if the score remains tied, following the same procedure. What is the NFHS's rule about defensive positioning and legal guarding? The NFHS rule book emphasizes that a defensive player must establish a legal guarding position by facing the opponent and remaining stationary until the opponent moves. Illegal guarding includes placing hands or feet in illegal positions.

6 Are there specific rules about the use of the shot clock in NFHS games? Yes, the NFHS basketball rule book mandates a 35-second shot clock for most levels, designed to promote offensive play and reduce stalling. The shot clock resets after certain stoppages or fouls. Where can I access the official NFHS basketball rule book? The official NFHS basketball rule book is available for download on the NFHS website, and printed copies can be purchased through NFHS publications or authorized distributors.
